factors research and other fields that has been done in this field or adjacent to it both historically and more recently with commentary essays and interviews with creators and artists We often hear that the technologies in our everyday lives would appear to be magic and potentially terrifying to people in the past instantaneous communication with people all over the world access to a vast ever growing resource of human knowledge right there in the palm of our hand objects with intelligence that can sense and talk to us and each other But rarely are these otherworldly dimensions of technologies explored in more detail There is an often unspoken presumption that the march of progress will inevitably mean we all adopt new practices and incorporate new products and new ways of doing things into our lives all cities will become smart cities all homes will become smart homes But these systems have become omnipresent without our necessarily understanding them They are not just black boxes but invisible entities in our homes and everyday lives which work through hidden flows of data unknown agendas imaginary clouds mysterious sets of rules which we perhaps dismiss as algorithms or even AI without really understanding what that means On some level the superstitions and sense of wonder and ways of relating to the unknown and the supernatural deities spirits ghosts which humanity has felt in every culture throughout history have not gone away but started to become transferred and transmuted into new forms

A revolutionary reexamination of trauma s role in the life journey opening the door to growth and healing Trauma does not just happen to a few unlucky people it is the bedrock of our psychology Death and illness touch us all but even the everyday sufferings of loneliness and fear are traumatic In The Trauma of Everyday Life renowned psychiatrist and author of Thoughts Without a Thinker Mark Epstein uncovers the transformational potential of trauma revealing how it can be used for the mind s own development Western psychology teaches that if we understand the cause of trauma we might move past it while many drawn to Eastern practices see meditation as a means of rising above or distancing themselves from their most difficult emotions Both Epstein argues fail to recognize that trauma is an indivisible part of life and can be used as a lever for growth and an ever deeper understanding of change When we regard trauma with this perspective understanding that suffering is universal and without logic our pain connects us to the world on a more fundamental level The way out of pain is through it Epstein s discovery begins in his analysis of the life of Buddha looking to how the death of his mother informed his path and teachings The Buddha s spiritual journey can be read as an expression of primitive agony grounded in childhood trauma Yet the Buddha s story is only one of many in The Trauma of Everyday Life Here Epstein looks to his own experience that of his patients and of the many fellow sojourners and teachers he encounters as a psychiatrist and Buddhist They are alike only in that they share in trauma large and small as all of us do Epstein finds throughout that trauma if it doesn t destroy us wakes us up to both our minds own capacity and to the suffering of others It makes us more human caring and wise It can be our greatest teacher our freedom itself and it is available to all of us Check out Epstein s latest book Advice Not Given A Guide to Getting Over Yourself Reflections of Buddha for Every Day David Crossweller,1999 Reflections of Buddha for

Chinese and Buddhist Philosophy in Early Twentieth-Century German Thought

Eric S. Nelson,2017-08-24 Presenting a comprehensive portrayal of the reading of Chinese and Buddhist philosophy in early twentieth century German thought Chinese and Buddhist Philosophy in Early Twentieth Century German Thought examines the implications of these readings for contemporary issues in comparative and intercultural philosophy Through a series of case studies from the late 19th century and early 20th century Eric Nelson focuses on the reception and uses of Confucianism Daoism and Buddhism in German philosophy covering figures as diverse as Buber Heidegger and Misch He argues that the growing intertextuality between traditions cannot be appropriately interpreted through notions of exclusive identities closed horizons or unitary traditions Providing an account of the context motivations and hermeneutical strategies of early twentieth century European thinkers interpretation of Asian philosophy Nelson also throws new light on the question of the relation between Heidegger and Asian philosophy Reflecting the growing interest in the possibility of intercultural and global philosophy Chinese and Buddhist Philosophy in Early Twentieth Century German Thought opens up the possibility of a more inclusive intercultural conception of philosophy Sons of the Buddha Jason A. Carbine,2011-05-04 Intended as a methodological and theoretical contribution to the study of religion and society this book examines Buddhist monasticism in Myanmar The book focuses on the Shwegyin one of the most important but least understood monastic groups in the country Analyzing the group as a tradition constructed around ideas of continuity and disruption rupture the study illuminates key aspects of monastic and wider Burmese Buddhist thought and practice and ultimately argues for the distinctiveness of elements of that thought and practice in comparison to the Buddhist cultures of Sri Lanka and Laos After situating the Shwegyin within the history of Buddhist monasticism more generally and within the vicissitudes of modern Burmese political history the book proceeds along two scholarly avenues It adopts an interdisciplinary method with attention to biographical administrative doctrinal and ethnographic evidence Theoretically the book engages scholarly discussion about traditions and their traditionalisms and advances a specific type of interpretive approach built on bringing the viewpoints and practices of the Shwegyin into conversation with the enterprise of understanding larger historical and cultural patterns in the Buddhist societies of South and Southeast Asia Communism and Zen Fire, Zen Wind Osho,2023-08-02 A spiritualist in the first place knows he is not going to be born again If he has not come to that point he has no right to call himself a spiritualist A person who has known his spirituality has no need to come back to any body in any reincarnation This imprisonment in the body is only up to the point when you become a buddha When you become a buddha you have learned everything that life could teach you and you have not only learned the outside world you have learned your inner world also Reflections of God'S Turning Points Nanette H. Kirk,2018-01-15 This is an inspiring testimony about how Nanette came to know the Lord Jesus Christ for herself She tells of how her renewed faith in Jesus Christ catapulted her into Godly living Be in awe as she tells of her supernatural encounter with the Holy Spirit who literally saved her from certain death Nanette tells of her journey in overcoming lifes challenges and the seeds of self doubt sown into her by her family She candidly tells of how God delivered her from a path of self destruction and put her feet on solid ground You will learn of the negative effects of low self esteem and how easy it is even for a saved person to become derailed and fall into the ways of worldly living one of Satans traps when you dont have a personal relationship with God Nanette gives testimony to Gods unmerited grace and mercy as she tells of His love and forgiveness
