Natalya's Secrets John P. Fields, 2008-12 The bomb explosion at a Greenwich Village Townhouse left Paul Goldman frightened and distraught and he visits his seventy year old grandmother Natalya Rhinerling seeking consolation She feeds him dinner and after eating he confesses his unlawful involvement with a violent wing of the antiwar movement Natalya was aware of his political activism and the alienation of his father but the things he revealed tonight were extremely disturbing When they finished eating they moved to the living room where Paul sat in his favorite chair I feel relaxed whenever I'm in this room Grandma It brings back pleasant memories of Grandpa Rhinerling It's hard to believe he's been gone three years I miss him No one misses him more than I do she sighed and my heart is still broken Now I am worried about you my dear Paul and so are your parents I decided that now is the time to reveal the shocking secrets your Grandfather and I had kept hidden for over 20 years In the past Natalya had avoided his probing questions preferring to discuss her music career or tell stories about her childhood how she hunted butterflies and rode horses on her family's country estate in Russia What kind of secrets could she be referring to Paul wondered Natalya opened a small mahogany liquor cabinet that sat in a corner of the living room She removed a bottle of Courvoisier and filled two pony glasses To prepare the senses for what is to come she toasted touching her glass to his With that bit of theatrics the talented violinist began the astonishing saga of her life

Reflections on Poetry and the World Emily Grosholz, 2020-12-18 This collection brings together 40 years of essays about poetry and literature written by Emily Grosholz The first section includes essays about some of her favorite poets and thinkers in the United States England France and Germany The second section brings poetry into relation with ethics politics and practical deliberation and the third considers it alongside science and imagination The last section is an homage to The Hudson Review for whom she has served as an Advisory Editor for many years As a philosopher Emily Grosholz has written and thought about feminism racism and mathematics and science which has led her to admire all the more the distinct wisdom of poetry These essays show how poetry reorganized language and memory eros and experience and time and place and how and why it deepens our understanding of life
