found that poetry was my best outlet for expressing my thoughts on many of my personal experiences and most of them are inspired by either an individual or a life event that I felt a need to capture and share Many people may have had similar experiences and can relate with my words I hope that my penned words can be an inspiration or can offer solitude or gratification to others Writing is a gift from God and I hope that my gift will be a present to your presence and a pathway to individual peace Reflections in Poetry and Prose Dorothy E. Terry,1976 Reflections Sharon Derderian,1991 core of who we are and the purpose of our creation which is reflected in our culture and in our responsibility to our environment It brings us face to face with the constitution of our tripartite nature and how we ought to live in reflection of our Creator This Book reflects theology humanity and geography as a picture of this unity Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting (2 vols.) Jean-Baptiste Du Bos,2021-07-15 Jean Baptiste Du Bos Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting first published in French in 1719 is one of the seminal works of modern aesthetics Du Bos rejected the seventeenth century view that works of art are assessed by reason Instead he believed audience members have sentiments in response to artworks Their sentiments are fainter versions of those they would feel in response to actually seeing what the work of art imitates Du Bos was influenced by John Locke's empiricism and in turn had a major impact on virtually every major eighteenth century contributor to philosophy of art including Voltaire Montesquieu Diderot Rousseau Herder Lessing Mendelssohn Kames Gerard and Hume This is the first modern annotated and scholarly edition of the Critical Reflections in any language

A Reflection of Life'S Image Edward Parrish Jr.,2010-06-10 We often hold a different view of ourselves than what we project to others But it is during times of inner reflection that we see the truth of our being for better or worse Instead of fearing the exposure of our true self we should embrace it and fully appreciate the depth and breadth of our character A Reflection of Lifes Image explores the unique relationships we have not only with our inner spirit but also with the spirits of those around us Through vivid imagery and stunning verse Edward Parrish Jr brilliantly captures how we as humans hide our true selves yet secretly long to reveal our real personalities Parrishs poetry uses images of nature to convey human emotions thoughts and actions In his title poem Reflections Parrish compares a flower to a soft spoken word while Learning uses autumn to create a colorful composition that exposes the moments of nature as it surrounds us In addition Parrish examines the seasons of life with those of nature crafting a lasting tribute to this intricate connection With a gift for translating emotion onto the page Parrish has created a deeply moving poetry collection filled with depth A Reflection of Lifes Image will fill your mind with peace and open your heart to the human condition

Payback and Other Stories Tomi Adeaga,Sarah Udoh-Grossfurthner,2018 The short stories explore the complications faced by Africans in living the postcolonial experience especially as it directly impacts the African world its peoples and their sometimes complicated lifestyles The narratives capture not only the angst of seeking meaning in a world that challenges wholeness for African communities and individuals but above all look at ways of retrieval of cultural ancestral knowledge in authenticating themselves

Baudelaire and Intertextuality Margery A. Evans,1993-01-07 This 1993 reading of Baudelaire s Le Spleen de Paris is a response to Baudelaire s own challenge to read his text as one in which everything is head and tail alternately and reciprocally Margery Evans proposes that Le Spleen de Paris serves to question the conventions of prose forms such as the unitary narrator the extended plot and the artifice of beginnings and endings She shows how Baudelaire s text probes the relationship between individuality and conformity to pre existing codes both in literature and in the world and how the giant metropolis provides a symbol of that drama Dr Evans explores the interconnections between the prose poems which make up Le Spleen de Paris and their intertextual relations with other mostly prose works and argues that this anomalous hybrid work raises far reaching questions of relevance to narratology and to literary theory as a whole
