Reflections of Breeze Mollee Ostrander, 2001-04-15 This manuscript has been composed over a while The beginning of it was written some time back and the last half has been recent It has seen its share of additions deletions and adjustments Yet the constancy that has remained has been a need to convey insights into life humanity and the undying perseverance of that which causes one to hold on to endure to be honest with oneself to smile through tears and remain steadfast and determined love and spirit heart and soul endurance perseverance and determination to live instead of merely exist Truth with all of these is freeing my words as included in these works demonstrates this Having chosen to bring into the heart many a person whose existence and life crossed paths with mine it was what I saw in them as they passed by that caused me to take notice and hold on Sadly however and more often than not they failed to see the beauty that is within them With my writings I sought to place a mirror before them so as to show that what some individuals have been blessed with being able to convey they also possess It is my belief that the greatness that is aspired to in heart and soul is within each of us Meditations and Musings Linda M. Yolanda Williams Page's Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers provides biographical entries on more than 150 literary figures; this book is much broader in scope. Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries on African American women writers as well as on male writers who have treated women in their works. Entries on genres, periods, themes, characters, historical events, texts, places, and other topics are included as well. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and relates its subject to the overall experience of women in African American literature. Entries cite works for further reading, and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography. African American culture is enormously diverse, and the experience of women in African American society is especially complex. Women were among the first African American writers, and works by black women writers are popular among students and general readers alike. At the same time, African American women have been oppressed, and texts by black male authors represent women in a variety of ways. The first of its kind, this encyclopedia approaches African American literature from a Women's Studies perspective and thus significantly illuminates the African American cultural experience through literary works. Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries written by numerous expert contributors. In addition to covering male and female African American authors, the encyclopedia also discusses themes, major works, and characters, genres, periods, historical events, places, and other topics. Included are entries on such authors as Maya Angelou, James Baldwin, Frederick Douglass, Nikki Giovanni, June Jordan, Claude McKay, Ishmael Reed, Sojourner Truth, Phillis Wheatley, and many others. In addition, the many works discussed include Beloved, Blanche on the Lam, I know Why the Caged Bird Sings, The Men of Brewster Place, Quicksand, The Street, Waiting to Exhale, and many more. The many topical entries cover Black Feminism, Black Nationalism, Conjuring, Children's and Young Adult Literature, Detective Fiction, Epistolary Novel, Motherhood, Sexuality, Spirituality, Stereotypes, and many others. Entries relate their topics to the experience of African American women and cite works for further reading.

East European Accessions Index, 1955 The Poetic Music of Wallace Stevens

Bart Eeckhout, Lisa Goldfarb, 2022-07-12 Wallace Stevens's musicality is so profound that scholars have only begun to grasp his ties to the art of music or the music of his own poetry. In this study, two long-time specialists present a polyphonic composition in which they pursue various interlocking perspectives. Their case studies demonstrate how music as a temporal art form may affect a poetic of ephemerality, sensuous experience, and affective intensification. Such a poetic, they argue, invites flexible interpretations that respond to poetry as an art of textual performance How did Stevens enact the relation between music and memory How can we hear his verse as a form of melody making What was specific to his ways of recording birdsong Have we been missing the latent music of Richard Strauss Gustav Mahler and Claude Debussy in particular poems What were the musical poetics he shared with Igor Stravinsky And how is our experience of the late poetry transformed when we listen to a musical setting by Ned Rorem The Poetic Music of Wallace Stevens will appeal to experts in the poet's work students of Modernism in the arts and a wider audience fascinated by the dynamics of exchange between music and poetry The American Literary Emporium, 1848 The American Literary Emporium Darius Mead, 1849
