Cineaste on Film Criticism, Programming, and Preservation in the New Millennium Cynthia Lucia, Rahul Hamid, 2017-11-01 Digital technology and the Internet have revolutionized film criticism programming and preservation in deeply paradoxical ways The Internet allows almost everyone to participate in critical discourse but many print publications and salaried positions for professional film critics have been eliminated Digital technologies have broadened access to filmmaking capabilities as well as making thousands of older films available on DVD and electronically At the same time however fewer older films can be viewed in their original celluloid format and newer digitally produced films that have no material prototype are threatened by ever changing servers that render them obsolete and inaccessible Cineaste one of the oldest and most influential publications focusing on film has investigated these trends through a series of symposia with the top film critics programmers and preservationists in the United States and beyond This volume compiles several of these symposia Film Criticism in America Today 2000 International Film Criticism Today 2005 Film Criticism in the Age of the Internet 2008 Film Criticism The Next Generation 2013 The Art of Repertory Film Exhibition and Digital Age Challenges 2010 and Film Preservation in the Digital Age 2011 It also includes interviews with the late celebrated New Yorker film critic Pauline Kael and the critic John Bloom Joe Bob Briggs as well as interviews with the programmers curators Peter von Bagh and Mark Cousins and with the film preservationist George Feltenstein This authoritative collection of primary source documents will be essential reading for scholars students and film enthusiasts particular heuristics such as the mental availability of exemplars and the effects of framing have encouraged critics to match filmic elements to contemporaneous historical events persons and policies In charting the development of these particular readings Film Criticism the Cold War and the Blacklist features case studies of many canonical Cold War titles including The Red Menace On the Waterfront The Robe High Noon and Invasion of the Body Snatchers The X List Jami Bernard,2009-04-20 National Society of Film Critics dares to go where few mainstream critics have gone before to the heart of what gets the colored lights going as they say in A Streetcar Named Desire Here is their take on the films that quicken their and our pulses an enterprise both risky and risqué an entertaining overview of the most arousing films Hollywood has every produced But make no mistake about it This isn't a collection of esoteric critic's choice movies The films reflect individual taste rubbing against the grain of popular wisdom And because of the personal nature of the erotic forces at play these essays will reveal more about the individual critics than perhaps they have revealed thus far to their readers The Society is a world renowned marquee name organization embracing some of America's most distinguished critics more than forty writers who have followings nationally as well as devoted local constituencies in such major cities as New York Chicago Los Angeles Boston Philadelphia Atlanta and Minneapolis Yes The X List will have something for every lover of film and for every lover
