LAURENCE PRATT

whose unusual poetic talents are displayed at length for the first time in A SAGA OF A PAPER MILL, is a high school instructor of Portland, Oregon. Largely self-educated, he has worked as printer's devil, elevator boy, groceryman, music teacher, longshoreman, gas-meter man, pressman, high school teacher, college professor. He holds a B.A. degree from Reed College and an M.A. degree from the University of Washington; has contributed hundreds of poems to literary magazines throughout the United States; has been president of the Northwest Poetry Society and associate editor of Muse and Mirror.

Today he looms as one of the most promising poets on the horizon of the Northwest.

Lost Fox Cities Scott Wittman, 2019-04-01 The lumber kings and paper barons of the Fox River Valley transformed a wilderness of vast rich timberlands and raging river waters into empires of pine paper and power In Oshkosh lumber dynasties such as Paine and Morgan helped rebuild a nation ravaged by fire and war Four young Neenah entrepreneurs with no experience in papermaking formed Kimberly Clark one of the largest paper manufacturers in the world H J Rogers of Appleton watched his home light up the night after he wired it with Edison s electric lightbulbs the first in the world to do so utilizing hydroelectricity These men ushered in an era of opulence shining with steamboat excursions along the river palatial mansions in plush neighborhoods and lavish hotels and movie houses Much of this bygone age now exists only in photographs written accounts or memories Local photographer and historian Scott Wittman recovers this vanishing history

The Thousandth Man Barry Cahill, 2000-12-15 James McGregor Stewart 1889 1955 was perhaps the foremost Canadian corporate lawyer of his day He was also an appellate counsel venture capitalist Conservative Party fundraiser bibliographer of Rudyard Kipling and sometime university teacher of classics A leader of the bar in the inter war period he was the first Maritimer to serve as president of the Canadian Bar Association He distinguished himself mainly in constitutional cases before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council During his career Stewart was also head of the leading law firm in eastern Canada now Stewart McKelvey Stirling Scales director and vice president of the Royal Bank of Canada and senior counsel to the Royal Commission on Dominion Provincial Relations Above all Stewart was committed to the idea of law as a truly learned profession and to the bar as the most important legal institution To this day no lawyer has held such prestige and power both within and outside Atlantic Canada in his time he was the only Maritime lawyer who gained full acceptance by every branch of the Canadian establishment Thematic rather than chronological in approach this fascinating legal biography provides both a history of a uniquely Canadian career and an interpretation of its significance for Stewart s time and ours

Forestry in the U.S. South Mason C. Carter,Robert C. Kellison,R. Scott Wallinger,2015-11-09 During the second half of the twentieth century the forest industry removed more than 300 billion cubic feet of timber from southern forests Yet at the same time partnerships between public and private entities improved the inventory health and productivity of this vast and resilient resource A comprehensive and multilayered history Forestry in the U S South explores the remarkable commercial and environmental gains made possible through the collaboration of industry universities and other agencies This authoritative assessment starts by discussing the motives and practices of early lumber companies which having exhausted the forests of the Northeast by the turn of the twentieth century aggressively began to harvest the virgin pine of the South with production peaking by 1909 The rapidly declining supply of old growth southern pine triggered a threat of timber famine and inspired efforts to regulate the industry By mid century however industrial forestry had its own profit incentive to replenish harvested timber This set the stage for a unique alliance between public and private sectors which conducted cooperative research on tree improvement fertilization seedling production and other practices germane to sustainable forest management By the close of the 1990s concerns about an inadequate timber supply gave way to questions about how to utilize millions of acres of pine plantations approaching maturity No longer concerned with the future supply of raw material and facing mounting global competition the U S pulp and paper industry consolidated restructured and sold nearly 20 million acres of forests to Timber Investment Management Organizations TIMOs and Real Estate Investment Trusts REITs resulting in an entirely new dynamic for private forestry in the South Incomparable in scope Forestry in the U S South spotlights the people and organizations responsible for empowering individual forest owners across the region tripling the production of pine stands and bolstering the livelihoods of thousands of men and women across the South ITALY Major
