Sagebrush Trilogy Idah Meacham Strobridge,1990 This rich collection of Nevada stories written by Nevada's first woman of letters captures much of the state's early life and lore Reprinted in their entirety In miners Mirage Land 1904 The loom of the desert 1907 and The land of purple shadows 1909 were originally published in limited editions Nevada's Remarkable Women Jan Cleere,2015-11-01 This book presents the compelling histories of fifteen pioneer women all born before 1900 who traveled Nevada Territory in unstable wagons on temperamental mules and in early Motel Ts to leave a legacy of courage and celebration as they broke records hearts and rules while conquering uncharted ground Meet Ferminia Sarras a Nicaraguan immigrant with four young daughters who arrived in Nevada in the early 1800s determined to seek her fortune as a miner and succeeded Dat so la lee a Washoe Indian renowned for her basket weaving artistry whose work is today preserved in museums and Anne Henrietta Martin a lifelong suffragette who fought for women's rights and was instrumental in securing the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment giving women the right to vote A Kid on the Comstock John Taylor Waldorf,1991 The Legend of Grizzly Adams Richard Dillon,1993 The greatest California mountain man of them all was Grizzly Adams He was also one of the most mysterious men in the history of the Far West In this colourful biography historian Richard Dillon chronicles the life of the man from a dull New England town who cultivated a society of bears in the wilderness of the West Guide to Reprints Albert James Diaz,2008 Lady in Boomtown Mrs. Hugh Brown,1991 Honest Horses Paula Morin,2006-02-13 Horses have been part of the American West since the first Spanish explorers brought their European bred steeds onto the new continent Soon thereafter some of these animals lost or abandoned by their owners or captured by indigenous peoples became the foundation of the great herds of mustangs from the Spanish meste o stray that still roam the West These feral horses are inextricably intertwined with the culture economy and mythology of the West The current situation of the mustangs as vigorous competitors for the scanty resources of the West's drought parched rangelands has put them at the center of passionate controversies about their purpose place and future on the open range Photographer oral historian Paula Morin has interviewed sixty two people who know these horses best ranchers horse breeders and trainers Native Americans veterinarians wild horse advocates mustangers range scientists cowboy poets western historians wildlife experts animal behaviorists and agents of the federal Bureau of Land Management The result is the most comprehensive impartial examination yet of the history and impact of wild mustangs in the Great Basin Morin elicits from her interviewees a range of expertise insight and candid opinion about the nature of horses ranching and the western environment Honest Horses brings us the voices of authentic westerners people who live intimately with horses and the land who share their experiences and love of the mustangs and who understand how precariously all life exists in Great Basin Will James, the Last Cowboy Legend Anthony A. Amaral,1992 Will James an author who in two dozen self illustrated books and scores of articles created one of the most popular and probably last cowboy legends of the American West James was an expert at taking fact and fantasy legend and lore and combining it to create a cowboy story people could lose themselves in. Sadly though James's success in creating a happy literary fantasy for children and adults couldn't extend to himself. A victim of the very articles, books, and drawings that made him famous, James's immense popularity threatened to topple the greatest story he ever penned: the story of his life.

Literary Nevada Cheryll Glotfelty, 2016-06-01

Over 200 writings about Nevada with selections from Native American tales to contemporary writings on urban experience and environmental concerns. The state of Nevada embodies paradox and contradiction: home to one of the fastest growing cities in the nation and to isolated ranches scattered across a sparsely populated backcountry. Nevada is a place where the lust for sudden wealth has prompted both wild mining booms and glittering casinos and where forbidding atomic test sites coexist with alluring tourist meccas. The variety and distinctiveness of Nevada's landscape and peoples have inspired writers from the beginning of immigrant contact with the region. This contact has produced abundant literary wealth that includes the rich oral traditions of Native American peoples and an amazing spectrum of contemporary voices. Literary Nevada is the first comprehensive literary anthology of Nevada. It contains over 200 selections ranging from traditional Native American tales, explorers and emigrants accounts, and writing from the Comstock Lode and other mining boomtowns, as well as compelling fiction, poetry, and essays from throughout the state's history. There is work by well-known Nevada writers such as Sarah Winnemucca, Mark Twain, and Robert Laxalt, by established and emerging writers from all parts of the state, and by some nonresident authors whose work illuminates important facets of the Nevada experience. The book includes cowboy poetry, travel writing, accounts of nuclear Nevada, narratives about rural life and urban life in Las Vegas and Reno, poetry and fiction from the state's best contemporary writers, and accounts of the special beauty of wild Nevada's mountains and deserts. Editor Cheryll Glotfelty provides insightful introductions to each section and author. The book also includes a photo gallery of selected Nevada writers and a generous list of suggested further readings. Nevada has inspired an exceptionally rich panorama of fine writing and a dazzling array of literary voices. The selections in Literary Nevada will engage and delight readers while revealing the complex and exciting diversity of the state's history, people, and life.

The Mining West Richard E. Lingensfelter, 2003

This two-volume set cites books, pamphlets, maps, music, directories, and other published materials, excluding materials from technical and popular magazines and newspapers on the history of mining in the American and Canadian West. Topics covered include prospecting, mining rushes, and camps, and mining, finance, labor, technology, law, literature, and lore. The initial portion provides general information on mining and metallurgical technology. The subsequent regional sections are subdivided into refined historical studies, raw materials, fictional and poetic treatments, and bibliographical guides to further materials.
