Six French Poets of the Nineteenth Century E. H. Blackmore, A. M. Blackmore, 2000 Poetry will no longer keep in time with action it will be ahead of it Arthur Rimbaud The active and colourful lives of the poets of nineteenth century France are reflected in the diversity and vibrancy of their works At once sacred and profane passionate and satirical these remarkable and innovative poems explore the complexities of human emotion and ponder the great questions of religion and art They form as rich a body of work as any one age and language has ever produced This unique anthology includes generous selections from the six nineteenth century French poets most often read in the English speaking world today Lamartine Hugo Baudelaire Verlaine Rimbaud and Mallarm Modern translations are printed opposite the original French verse and the edition contains over a thousand lines of poetry never previously translated into English Selected Poems Paul Verlaine, 2009-02-26 Verlaine possessed by the madnesses of love brimming over with desires and prayers the rebel railing against the complacent platitudes of society of love of language Jean Rousselot Verlaine ranks alongside Baudelaire Mallarm and Rimbaud as one of the most outstanding poets of late nineteenth century France whose work is associated with the early Symbolists the Decadents and the Parnassiens Remarkable not only for his delicacy and exquisitely crafted verse Verlaine is also the poet of strong emotions and appetites with an unrivalled gift for the sheer music of poetry and an inventive approach to its technique This bilingual edition provides the most comprehensive selection of his poetry yet offering some 170 poems in lively and fresh translations and providing a lucid introduction which illuminates Verlaine's poetic form within the context of French Impressionism and the poetry of sensation Parallel text ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more An Anthology of Modern French Poetry (1850-1950) Peter Broome, Graham Chesters, 1976-07-15 This anthology is the companion volume to The Appreciation of Modern French Poetry the aim of which was to give detailed preliminary help with the problems of poetic appreciation The fourteen poets represented here provide a varied and exciting introduction to what is probably the richest century of French poetry from 1850 to 1950 Hugo the colossus of the nineteenth century whose work gives new resonance and vitality to imaginative vision opens the anthology and Michaux the most individual and modern of twentieth century poets in that he bridges the gap between poetry and contemporary science closes it Almost all the major poets of the period are included Nerval Baudelaire Mallarm Verlaine Rimbaud and Laforgue from the second half of the nineteenth century Valéry Apollinaire Supervielle and Eluard in the twentieth The lesser known Cros and Desnos fresh and spontaneous poets with an immediate appeal invite a new look at the lyric traditions of French verse and offer an attractive new avenue for study The choice of poems dictated above all by their individual poetic value reflects also the trends of recent criticism and the tastes of present day readers The texts are all accompanied by full notes which not only explain local difficulties of vocabulary syntax and expression but lead the reader directly into the heart of the richness of theme style and interpretation These will prove of value not only to the student who is grappling with the basics of french verse or is anxious to give depth to his familiarity but to the general reader seeking to rekindle his enjoyment of French poetry In addition there are introductions to each poet summarizing the essence of his art useful suggestions for further reading and groups of discussion topics to stimulate comparative insights and a wider responsiveness
