Sailor Souvenirs:

Souvenirs of the Fur Trade Mary Malloy, Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology, 2000-12-18 American mariners made more than 175 voyages to the Northwest Coast during the half century after 1787 The art and culture of Northwest Coast Indians so intrigued American sailors that the collecting of ethnographic artifacts became an important secondary trade Malloy has brought details about these early collections together for the first time Deep Sea Sailors Knut Weibust, 1976 All Hands, 1989 The Sailors' Magazine and Seamen's Friend, 1905 Office Appliances; The Magazine of Office Equipment, 1918 Seafaring Women David Cordingly, 2002-03-12 For centuries the sea has been regarded as a male domain but in this illuminating historical narrative maritime scholar David Cordingly shows that an astonishing number of women went to sea in the great age of sail Some traveled as the wives or mistresses of captains others were smuggled aboard by officers or seamen And Cordingly has unearthed stories of a number of young women who dressed in men's clothes and worked alongside sailors for months sometimes years without ever revealing their gender His tremendous research shows that there was indeed a thriving female population from pirates to the sirens of myth and legend on and around the high seas A landmark work of women's history disguised as a spectacularly entertaining yarn Women Sailors and Sailor's Women will surprise and delight Work, Class, and Power in the Borderlands of the Early American Pacific Evan Lampe, 2013-12-12 This book traces the history of working people who helped establish the foundation of the American empire in the Pacific from its origins after the American Revolution to its coming of age in the 1840s and 1850s Beginning with the expeditions of the Columbia and the Lady Washington Lampe argues that the early American Pacific can best be considered through the interaction of four major locations connected through the networks of trade the merchant ship the Northwest Coast Honolulu and Canton Guangzhou In each of these locations the labors of a diverse population of working people was harnessed in the critical labors of empire building including the transportation of goods The central question that the consideration of working people in the Pacific economy during this period is Lampe argues the role of power applied on these laborers by an international capitalist class emerging alongside the Pacific commercial empires Lampe also finds that this power was not uncontested and emerged in response to the activities of labor Working people on the ship and in the port cities found ways to secure their piece of the profitable trade often through illicit means

Occupying Force D. Gossman, 2003-06-19 A surprise attack on American soil and a holy war waged under the guise of an ancient religion A nation of zealots indoctrinated to hate Western Civilization and a culture ignoring reason in favor of mindless violence A cabal of militarists conditioned to elect suicide as a battle strategy and celebrate death for divine reward Headlines from today's war on terrorism No these were the themes of America's war with twentieth century Japan Joining the Navy to face these fearsome enemies seventeen year old Charlie misses the action in World War II by mere days Then directed to occupy the former foe's homeland instead he remains behind when the war's heroes have all returned to a welcoming nation Working and enduring through the months Charlie records his daily thoughts while growing to respect the Japanese people and does his best to find adventure along the way Liverpool China Traders Christina Baird, 2007

Perhaps the most enduring image of the China Trade is the clipper ship carrying tea from China In 1869 the clippers were finally overshadowed by the introduction of steam vessels which could make passage through the Suez Canal significantly shortening the length of the voyage Letters journals and order books have survived which tell us about the traders their private trading activities motivation tastes and private lives This book examines the role played by the port of Liverpool in this time of great change The book examines Liverpool's early participation in the China Trade following the cessation of the British East India Company's monopoly of the trade in 1834 and maps the changes in artistic tastes that the commencement of free trade gave rise to These new tastes represented a true fusion of European and Chinese cultural influences and replaced the pastiche of The Orient that chinoiserie represented during the period of the monopoly Amazon.com

Animal Places Jacob Bull, Tora Holmberg, Cecilia Åsberg, 2017-11-22 Nonhuman animals are ubiquitous to our human societies Interdisciplinary human animal research has for 50 years drawn attention to how animals are ever present in what we think of as human spaces and cultures Our societies are built with animals and through all kinds of multispecies interactions From public spaces and laboratories to homes farms and in the wilderness human and nonhuman animals meet to make space and place together through webs of power relations However the very spaces of these interactions are not mute or passive themselves The spaces where species meet matter and shape human animal relations This book takes as its starting point the relationship between place and human animal interaction It brings together the work of leading scholars in human animal studies from a variety of disciplinary and interdisciplinary backgrounds With a distinct focus on place physical space and biocultural geography the authors of this volume consider the ways in which space human and nonhuman animals co constitute each other how they make spaces together produce meaning around them struggle over access how these places are storied and how stories of spaces matter Presenting studies thematically and including a variety of nonhuman creatures in a range of settings this book delivers new understandings of the importance of nonhuman animals to understandings of place and the role of places in shaping our interactions with nonhuman creatures As pets as laboratory animals as exhibits as parasites as livestock as quarry as victims of disaster or objects of folklore this book offers insights into human animal intermingling at locales and settings of great relevance to many areas of research including geography sociology science and technology studies gender studies history and anthropology This book meets the evolving interest in human animal interaction anthrozoology and the environmental humanities in relation to the research on space and place that currently informs the humanities and the social sciences The Publishers Weekly, 1918 Advances in Sociocybernetics and Human Development International Institute for Advanced Studies in Systems Research and Cybernetics, 2000 Escape Beyond the Barriers Miik YS, 2020-05-28 Sailor flees her home to avoid an attack by gang members She stashes herself in the garage of her neighbor Timi who invents equipment at a military black site and who also tinkers in his garage One of the gang members Rocky tails her into the garage so Sailor takes her chances with Timi s invisibility device still under development instead of facing the gang s violence Rather than become invisible Sailor transports to a world Notia in another universe but Rocky pursues her there The ruler or caretaker for that territory Slick dips into the minds of all living creatures as easily as dipping a toe into water Meanwhile Timi supposes his device killed his neighbor so he struggles with ironing out the final kinks in it while his boss the colonel schemes to get his hands on it Sailor s driving urge to return home pales with the possible military invasion of Notia by the colonel Compounding that with the decimation of Earth as well leaves Sailor Timi and Slick as the only three to avert the destruction of two worlds The story celebrates individualism and friendship It also challenges the notion that striving toward a goal is the only way to reach it As Slick says A better strategy sometimes is to escape what binds you to your particular rut break through the barriers restraining you so to speak and then your paths to possibilities open up Tender Years Helen Kerr, 2009-12-14 They came to Canada as newlyweds in 1835 to carve a life out of a rugged wilderness Ester McWaters Kelly gave birth to 10 children while living in their log home in Ontario s Brooke Township her husband John away working in the Long Point foundry The homesteaders were the beginning of a long line of hardy Canadian stock visited by writer Helen Kerr in her new book Tender Years Kerr s 229 page book chronicles her ancestors passage through young Canada as well as her own family struggles homesteading in Saskatchewan before drought and the depression drove them out Tender Years with original family photographs and letters dating to 1882 also chronicles Kerr s difficult training years as a nurse in a mental hospital prior to the discovery of mind altering psychotropic drugs That training was put to the test during the exciting years she served as a nurse in the Canadian Army in France and England in World War II including her whirlwind romance with a British officer The American Hebrew, 1924 Visitor Accommodations Furnished by Concessioners in the Areas Administered by the National Park Service, Shanghaiing Sailors Mark Strecker, 2014-05-19 Shanghaiing or forcing a man to join the crew of a merchant ship against his will plagued seafarers the world over between 1849 and 1915 Perpetrators were known as crimps and they had no respect for a man s education social status race religion or seafaring experience The merchant ships were involved in the opium tea and gold trades and the practice was spurred by the opening of the Suez Canal A major reason for it was a shortage of sailors and the unwillingness of seamen to sail on certain types of ships They suffered from great deprivations all for a paltry sum usually squandered during shore leave Navies and pirates had their own form of shanghaiing called impressment This work explores the rich history of shanghaiing and impressment with a focus on victims and also considers the 19th century seafarer and the circumstances that made shanghaiing so lucrative Judilee's Jubilee Judilee C.
