inaccessible to a wider audience This book divides the lives of female saints into the ryght hooly virgins who vocally defend their bodies against Roman persecution holy mothers who give up their traditional role to pursue a life of contemplation the repentant sinners who convert and voice their defiance against a society that demanded silence in women and the holy transvestites who cast off their gender identity to find absolution and salvation Their lives reach through the ages to speak to a modern audience academic and non academic forcing a re examination of women s roles in the medieval period LARISSA TRACY is Adjunct Assistant Professor of English at Georgetown University and George Mason University Series editor JANE CHANCE
