Saints and Sea-kings Ewan Campbell, 1999 The kingdom of Dal Riata flourished for a few brief centuries but the legacy of that period is profound According to legend the Irish king Fergus Mor arrived on the shore of Argyll around AD 500 and founded Dal Riata the first kingdom of the Scots New research now challenges this traditional account of Irish colonization of western Scotland However it arose this small kingdom held an important place in the artistic intellectual and political life of north western Scotland Artistic achievements such as the Book of Kells and the magnificent Iona stone crosses are some of the world's great works of art The reputation of the early Christian monks such as Columba and Domnan spread across Europe as the monastery at Iona became one of the major centers of learning

The Britannias: An Archipelago's Tale Alice Albinia, 2024-02-27 Longlisted for the Ondaatje Prize and the Women's Prize for Non Fiction Shortlisted for the Stanford Travel Writing Award A dazzlingly brilliant book Hannah Dawson editor of The Penguin Book of Feminist Writing A revelatory portrait of Britain through its islands The Britannias weaves history myth and travelogue to rewrite the story of this island nation From Neolithic Orkney Viking Shetland and Druidical Anglesey to the joys and strangeness of modern Thanet The Britannias explores the farthest reaches of Britain's island topography once known by the collective term Britanniae the Britains This expansive journey demonstrates how the smaller islands have wielded disproportionate influence on the mainland becoming the fertile ground of political cultural and technological innovations that shaped history throughout the archipelago In an act of feminist inquiry personal adventure and literary quest Alice Albinia embarks on a series of journeys that traverse Britain and reach beyond its contemporary borders from Europe to the Caribbean Ireland to Scandinavia She walks the coastlines of Lindisfarne sails through the Hebrides archipelago and bikes into Westminster at dawn As she takes us across extravagantly varied island topographies and surveys centuries of history Albinia ranges between languages and genres and through disparate island cultures She talks to stubbornly independent islanders and searches for archaeological and linguistic traces of island identities discovering distinct traditions and resistance to mainland control Trespassing into the past to understand the present The Britannias uncovers an enduring and subversive mythology of islands ruled by women Albinia finds female independence woven through Roman colonial reports and Welsh medieval poetry Restoration utopias and island folk songs These neglected epics offer fierce feminist countercurrents to mainstream narratives of British identity and shed new light on women's status in the body politic today Vivid perceptive and disruptive The Britannias boldly upturns established truths about Britain while revealing its suppressed and forgotten beauty

Conceiving a Nation Gilbert Markus, 2017-06-29 This new edition in The New History of Scotland series replacing Alfred Smyth's Warlords and Holy Men 1984 covers the history of Scotland in the period up to 900 AD A great deal has changed in the historiography of this period in the intervening three decades an entire Pictish kingdom has moved nearly a hundred miles to the north new archaeological finds have forced us to rethink old assumptions and the writing of early medieval history is beginning to struggle out of the shadow of later medieval sources which have too often been read rather naively and without sufficient regard for their implicit ideological agenda Gilbert Markus brings a stimulating approach to studying this elusive period analysing both its litter of physical evidence as well as its literary sources what he calls luminous debris as a method of shedding light on the reality of the period In doing so he reforms our historical perceptions of what has often been dismissed as a dark age Harold, the last of the Saxon kings Edward George Earle Lytton Lytton,1906
