Men of Our Time Fred Moramarco, Al Zolynas, 1992-10-01 In this groundbreaking volume Fred Moramarco and Al Zolynas bring together a comprehensive and widely representative selection of poetry reflecting both the diversity and commodity of male experience in the United States today Since the beginning of the contemporary phase of the women s movement in the 1960s various anthologies devoted to the poetry of women have articulated and defined a distinctive sensibility attuned to the particularities of a woman's life in our time. Although much has been written recently about the male role in our society as well, the discussion generally has assumed a sociopsychological or mythic perspective. Poetry Moramarco and Zolynas believe can reveal most about the nature of male life today, especially the enormous changes men have experienced in recent years. As the editors state in their introduction, A quiet revolution has been taking place in men's poetry over the past few decades as men have been chronicling the history of their hearts and have been examining those relationships central to their being in the world: their connections to their fathers and mothers, their own sense of fatherhood and of being sons and brothers, their marriages, divorces, and other aspects of their love lives, as well as the ways they conceive of maleness and femaleness. The poems collected in Men of Our Time (257 poems from more than 170 poets) include a wide mix of ethnic and racial perspectives that reflect the multicultural tenor of American life. They reveal men's most intimate feelings about the loss of childhood, sexual anxieties and fantasies, aging, self-sufficiency and dependency, and the perennial quest for a masculine identity. Above all, the poems are unapologetically grounded in a distinctly male experience or imagination. Men of Our Time reclaims a poetry that is connected to and expressive of men's lives in the closing decade of the twentieth century. Poems of Devotion Luke Hankins, 2012-11-30. ORDERS WILL SHIP ON NOVEMBER 30th. Poems of Devotion is a collection of the finest recent poems in the devotional mode, which the editor examines in detail in the introductory essay. The seventy-seven poets collected here demonstrate the ongoing vi Poets & Writers, 1992.

Beauty is a Verb Jennifer Bartlett, Sheila Fiona Black, Michael Northen, 2011. Beauty is a Verb is the first of its kind, a high-quality anthology of poetry by American poets with physical disabilities. Poems and essays alike consider how poetry coupled with the experience of disability speaks to the poetics of each poet included. The collection explores first the precursors whose poems had a complex and sometimes absent relationship with disability, such as Vassar Miller, Larry Eigner, and Josephine Miles. It continues with poets who have generated the Crip Poetics Movement, such as Petra Kuppers, Kenny Fries, and Jim Ferris. Finally, the collection explores the work of poets who don't necessarily subscribe to the identity of crip poetics and have never before been published in this exact context. These poets include Bernadette Mayer, Rusty Morrison, Cynthia Hogue, and C. S. Giscombe. The book crosses poetry movements from narrative to language poetry and speaks to and about a number of disabilities, including cerebral palsy, deafness, blindness, multiple sclerosis, and aphasia due to stroke, among others. Provided by publisher. Poetry 180 Billy Collins, 2003-03-25. A dazzling new anthology of 180 contemporary poems selected and introduced by America's Poet Laureate, Billy Collins. Inspired by Billy Collins's poem-a-day program with the Library of Congress, Poetry 180 is the perfect anthology for readers who appreciate engaging, thoughtful poems that are an immediate pleasure. A 180-degree turn implies a turning back; in this case, to poetry. A collection of 180 poems by the most exciting poets at work today. Poetry 180 represents the richness and diversity of the form and is designed to beckon readers with a selection of poems that are impossible not to love at first glance.
