Sallust On The Gods And The World:

Sallust on the Gods and the World Sallust,2017-08-05 This volume contains three pieces of composition each of which though inconsiderable as to its bulk is inestimable as to the value of its contents On the Gods and the World is the production of Sallust a 4th century pagan philosopher It is a beautiful epitome of the Platonic philosophy in which the most important dogmas are delivered with such elegant conciseness perfect accuracy and strength of argument that it is difficult to say to which the treatise is most entitled our admiration or our praise The Sentences of Demophilus are a collection from the works of ancient Pythagoreans by whom they were employed like proverbs on account of their intrinsic excellence and truth Along with five hymns by the philosopher Proclus this volume also includes five hymns by the translator Thomas Taylor Sallust, On the Gods and the World Sallustius, Demophilus, Proclus, 1963* Sallust, On the Gods and the World purple but declined it after Julian's death. Odin's Library Classics is dedicated to bringing the world the best of humankind's literature from throughout the ages.
