A Dead Man's Tale James D. Doss, 2010-11-09 Charlie Moon Ute rancher and investigator isn't afraid to throw the dice even when a man's life is at stake but when that man is betting against himself and Moon's ability to save him that makes for some awfully high stakes Hard times have come to Colorado and Moon's ranch is feeling the pinch Investor Samuel Reed has never had that problem He seems to have a special intuition when it comes to picking stocks and claims to be able to remember the future which gives him quite a leg up on Wall Street So it's no surprise that Reed is confident when he makes a wager with Moon's best friend Granite City Chief of Police Scott Parish that Parish can't keep him alive Even when Reed doesn't give them any details beyond the date and time of his impending demise that's more than enough information for Moon who wants in on the action and is just as confident that he's well on the way to saving his ranch But Moon's best plans go awry when instead of one homicide on his hands he ends up with two James D. Doss infuses the pages of A Dead Man's Tale the fifteenth in his popular series with his potent brand of high spirits and homespun humor that has made him a favorite among mystery readers
