Edgar Snow John Maxwell Hamilton, 2003-09-25 Edgar Snow 1905-1972 was one of the most notable Western journalists to report on China in both the revolutionary and postrevolutionary periods. He first became famous in the mid 1930s when he broke through a Nationalist blockade and reached the Communists in northwest China. For nearly a decade no foreign reporter had seen the Communists who were widely regarded as a ragtag bandit army. Snow took them seriously as a national movement. His reporting in the now famous book Red Star over China was major news even to the Chinese thousands of whom joined the Communists after reading it. It has remained a seminal reference on the early Chinese Communist movement. In this award-winning biography journalist John Maxwell Hamilton follows Snow from his birth in Kansas City to his rise as a celebrated foreign correspondent for the Saturday Evening Post, his ostracism during the cold war and his role as a singular journalistic bridge between Communist China and the United States. With a new preface by the author this revealing portrait of the widely misunderstood Snow firmly establishes him as a model for the kind of committed reporting that is crucial to understanding our interdependent world.

Australia's China Lachlan Strahan, 1996 First published in 1996 Australia's China explores the multifaceted and dynamic Australian encounter with China from the beginning of the Sino Japanese War in 1937 through the Cold War to the Australian recognition of the PRC in 1972. Going beyond conventional policy studies it traces the patterns in Australian reactions to China from the grass roots to official circles highlighting the centrality of images concerning the exotic disease sexuality the frontier and China as a paradise anti paradise. In responding to China Australians revealed something of themselves and this book maps the formation of Australian conceptions of identity in the context of a cross cultural encounter which was variously cooperative enriching baffling and antagonistic. But there was no single Australian conception of China. Rather competing perceptions jostled in a shifting dialogue.
