Film & Video Finder ,1997 Reds or Rackets? Howard Kimeldorf,1988-11-04 Why is the American working class different For generations scholars and activists alike have wrestled with this question with an eye to explaining why workers in the United States are not more like their radicalized European counterparts Approaching the question from a different angle Reds or Rackets provides a fascinating examination of the American labor movement from the inside out as it were by analyzing the divergent sources of radicalism and conservatism within it Kimeldorf focuses on the political contrast between East and West Coast longshoremen from World War I through the early years of the Cold War when the difference between the two unions was greatest He explores the politics of the West Coast union that developed into a hot bed of working class insurgency and contrasts it with the conservative and racket ridden East Coast longshoreman s union Two unions based in the same industry as different as night and day The question posed by Kimeldorf is why Why reds on one coast and racketeers on the other To answer this question Kimeldorf provides a systematic comparison of the two unions illuminating the political consequences of occupational recruitment industry structure mobilization strategies and industrial conflict during this period In doing so Reds orRackets sheds new light on the structural and historical bases of radical and conservative unionism More than a comparative study of two unions Reds or Rackets is an exploration of the dynamics of trade unionism sources of membership loyalty and neglected aspects of working class consciousness It is an incisive and valuable study that will appeal to historians social scientists and anyone interested in understanding the political trajectory of twentieth century American labor Video Source Book Gale Group,1999-10-28 A guide to programs currently available

Jackson,2021-11-11 The diary of David Watson who rose through the officer ranks to command one of the four divisions in the Great War is an exceptional document that details with candid insight the responsibilities of senior command and shows the talent required to rise through the CEF to divisional command The only published diary of a Canadian who held this rank in the last two critical years of the war it focuses on the evolution of military leadership and associated challenges that Watson and his peers faced during the Great War It recounts how he navigated not only the military battlefield in France and Belgium but also the political battlefield of the Canadian Expeditionary Force and larger British Expeditionary Force The divisional commanders played a central role in the Corps transformation into a first rate professional army a transformation that coincided with Watson's tenure at the 4th Division Major General David Watson's personal accounts offer valuable insights into the innermost workings of the Canadian Corps at various stages during the war and in particular its emergence as an elite fighting force and the pride of a nation LIFE, 1967-10-27 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use David Merrick, the Abominable Showman Howard Kissel, 1993 Applause Books David Merrick is the most astonishing showman of our time and perhaps of all time No other producer not even Florenz Ziegfeld nor the combined lights of the Shubert brothers has equalled his percentage of hits or his demonic flair for publicity In this first ever biography Howard Kissel from his decade long investigation reveals the man the mask and the myth of David Merrick The charismatic and reclusive mogul emerges as a Broadway version of Howard Hughes with his own panoply of eccentricities genius and neuroses Merrick's much publicized and oftentimes staged battles and feuds are re-ignited here full force with such major personalities as Barbra Streisand Jackie Gleason Ethel Merman Lena Horne Woody Allen Peter Ustinov Andy Griffith Anthony Newley Peter Brook and Carol Channing Over a hundred interviews with the major players in Merrick's drama from his pre-Merrick St Louis childhood as David Margoules to his latest divorce has yielded the first serious interrogation of a life that until now has been the sole creation of Merrick's own invention and press wizardry
