Calvin James L. Codling, 2010-06-09 This study examines the influence of John Calvin in ethics eschatology and education as well as those influences that affected him It examines his writings to determine if his vision made him an innovator The research searched for reforms in the areas of ethics curriculum understanding of the teaching office and universal education It also looked at philosophy economics and labor A belief in the after life and end times was an ethical motivation for Calvin and education was a means by which the people that he worked with and wrote to could understand how they should live and why they should live like that Thus there is an important connection among ethics eschatology and education All people were to work to their potential at their job because in doing their job they would honor God Teachers were especially important Those who taught would affect the quality of education Calvin worked to provide teacher training and support He believed that all occupations could be a special calling from God and education was a means to prepare the young person for his or her calling Schools existed in Geneva before Calvin arrived in 1536 however they did not function in the way that Calvin would have liked Calvin provided the elementary students with a needed text when he prepared a catechism The students had written material that they could read and study and a systematic presentation of the basic doctrines of the Christian faith Calvin also wanted more appropriate facilities in which the students could learn Although his organization of the schools improved the atmosphere for learning the building of the Academy was his dream and became his major educational achievement in the city of Geneva Because 16th century students needed to be prepared for the new world there was a need for curriculum change The students were required to read many of the prominent Greek and Roman authors in the ancient languages but the student learned theology Hebrew poetry dialectic and rhetoric physics and mathematics as well Calvin wished to graduate a well rounded scholar who could take his or her place in society In this way the citizens of Geneva and all those of the Reformed belief would be better prepared for life on earth and the after life Resources in Education, 1997 International Encyclopedia of Education, 2009-04-17 The field of education has experienced extraordinary technological societal and institutional change in recent years making it one of the most fascinating yet complex fields of study in social science Unequaled in its combination of authoritative scholarship and comprehensive coverage International Encyclopedia of Education Third Edition succeeds two highly successful previous editions 1985 1994 in aiming to encapsulate research in this vibrant field for the twenty first century reader Under development for five years this work encompasses over 1 000 articles across 24 individual areas of coverage and is expected to become the dominant resource in the field Education is a multidisciplinary and international field drawing on a wide range of social sciences and humanities disciplines and this new edition comprehensively matches this diversity The diverse background and multidisciplinary subject coverage of the Editorial Board ensure a balanced and objective academic framework with 1 500 contributors representing over 100 countries capturing a complete portrait of this evolving field A totally new work revamped with a wholly new editorial board structure and brand new list of meta sections and articles Developed by an international panel of editors and authors drawn from senior academia Web enhanced with supplementary multimedia audio and video files hotlinked to relevant references and sources for further study Incorporates ca 1 350 articles with timely coverage of such topics as technology and learning demography and social change globalization and adult learning to name a few Offers two content delivery options print and online the latter of which provides anytime anywhere access for multiple users and superior search functionality via ScienceDirect as well as multimedia content including audio and video files 21st Century Music Education: Informal Learning and Non-Formal Teaching Ruth Wright, 2016 Policy, Leadership and Professional Knowledge in Education Michael Strain, Dr William F Dennison, Dr

Janet Ouston, Dr Valerie Hall, 1998-11-25 For those who want to wallow in the past this is a comfortable book that sets one's own experiences in context For those who will still be working into the next century here are the issues we must face as leaders For those PhD and EdD students seeking topics to research there are all the controversial issues here that still need investigation and it has a stunning list of references a roll call of all the great and the good in the last 25 years of educational administration International Studies in Educational Administration The book is a challenge to everyone concerned with the present and future state of public education in the UK and the rest of the developed world The issues are of special concern to those who are expected to provide leadership in schools and colleges and for those with public and political responsibilities How should our conception of learning and its contribution to a Learning Society be defined How can education and other aspects of social care and nurturing enhance our lives as people irrespective of our performance capabilities What is the role of teachers who also manage learning This book contributes formatively to current debate What can educationists do about the discontinuous changes which threaten parents and professionals alike Must education submit to the stranglehold of economic rationalism It is hoped that this book will assist all those working to promote education's humane and learning aspirations in society
