Shaping Spokane Jay P Graves And His Times:

Shaping Spokane John Fahey, 1994 He parlayed acquaintance into support involved in his schemes wealthy Canadian bankers and business executives and powerful American industrialists and played mighty companies against one another

Jay P. Graves and the Spokane & Inland Empire Railroad Company Lorri Moulton, The Spokane Inland Empire Railroad started as a streetcar line used largely for real estate development and grew into a regional electric railway noted for its cutting edge technology and elegant sense of style Jay P Graves and the other men connected with the railroad created land improvement companies designed to provide luxury resorts as well as plan small towns Within a few years the rail lines would stretch from Spokane to Coeur d Alene and Hayden lakes to the east with another line heading south through the Palouse splitting at Spring Valley to Colfax and Moscow Echoes of the Past Deb Lish, 2016-05-13 A little girl from a coal mining town in Ohio May Arkwright made the decision to migrate west to the gold rich in northern Idahos mining country Her life changed when she met train engineer Levi Al Hutton and found they had common childhood goals and dreams They married on January 17 1887 The Huttons became involved in the mining wars and Idaho Labor Strike in 1892 May became interested in womens suffrage movement fighting for equal rights for women From a small investment they became millionaires twice over The Huttons moved to Spokane Washington in 1907 where Al built May a mansion During this time she became ill and died shortly after For the first time in many years Al was alone His dream became true as the formation of the Hutton Settlement started taking shape for many orphans Levi Al Hutton died on November 3 1928 May and Al played prominent roles in the Coeur dAlene mining wars They realized that the great joy in life was giving Exploring the Huttons as partners makes their story significant to Western history as well as womens history Their legacy should live on forever

Oregon Historical Quarterly Oregon Historical Society, 1996 Saving the Reservation John Fahey, 2001 During the turbulent Fifties Congress moved aggressively to end federal supervision and support of Indians by abandoning long standing treaties As six term president of the National Congress of American Indians Joe Garry was a major power in forestalling wholesale dumping of Indian tribes He championed an Indian program of holding onto the lands honoring ancient cultures educating the young and developing economic independence More than any other individual Garry set in motion the forces that guide Indian relations today Mental Territories Katherine G. Morrissey, 2018-09-05 Rarely recognized outside its boundaries today the Pacific Northwest region known at the turn of the century as the Inland Empire included portions of the states of Washington and Idaho as well as British Columbia Katherine G Morrissey traces the history of this self proclaimed region from its origins through its heyday In doing so she challenges the characterization of regions as fixed places defined by their geography economy and demographics Regions she argues are best understood as mental constructs internally defined through conflicts and debates among different groups of people seeking to control a particular area s identity and direction She tells the story of the Inland Empire as a complex narrative of competing perceptions and interests Parallel

Destinies John M. Findlay, Kenneth S. Coates, 2011-10-01 The Canadian West and the American Northwest offer a valuable setting for considering issues of borders and borderlands The regions contain certain similarities and during the first half of the nineteenth century they were even grouped together as a distinct political and economic unit called the Oregon Country by Americans and the Columbia Department of the Hudson s Bay Company by the British The essays in this volume which grew out of a conference commemorating the Oregon Treaty of 1846 view the boundary between Canada and the United States as a dividing line and also as a regional backbone with people on each side of the border having key experiences and attitudes in common In their eloquence and scope they illustrate how historical study of Canadian American relations in the West calls into question the parameters of the nation state The border has not had a single constant meaning rather its significance has changed over time and varied from group to group The essays in Part One concern the movement of peoples and capital across a relatively permeable boundary during the nineteenth century Many people in this era especially Natives miners immigrants and capitalists did not regard the international boundary as particularly important Part Two considers how the United States and Canada took pains to strengthen and enforce the international boundary during the twentieth century In this era the nation state became more assertive about defining and defending the borderline Part Three offers considerations of the distinctions both real and imagined that emerged during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries between Canada and the United States Its essays examine different schools of history divergent ideas toward wilderness and the influence of anti Americanism on Canadians view of national development in North America The Graves Family Newsletter ,1999 MONTANA THE MAGAZINE OF WESTERN HISTORY ,1995 Wired for Success Charles Vincent Mutschler,2002 This lavishly illustrated story of technology people and commerce describes the Butte Anaconda Pacific Railway s hauling of vast amounts of copper ore from Butte Hill Montana to smelter operations twenty six miles west Wired for Success also delineates the BA P s essential role in developing electric railroads in the United States Seventy-five Years of Railroad History ,1997 The Idaho Librarian ,1997 Pacific Northwest Quarterly ,2003 Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia),1997 Montana ,1995 Elsie De Wolfe Penny Sparke,2005 Elsie de Wolfe is a twentieth century legend and is the mother of modern interior decoration Her name is familiar to many who practice the art of interior design or who are linked to the fashionable world of tastemaking She provided appropriate settings for the new rich in the first half of the twentieth century and in the process helped to shape our understanding of what we have come to know as the modern domestic interior Through the measured re examination of known materials as well as the review of history clarifying documents that have been overlooked or underused by previous de Wolfe enthusiasts Elsie de Wolfe The Birth of Modern Interior Decoration provides the foundation of a renewed interest in her groundbreaking career her philosophy of design and her belief that an atmosphere of beauty could cure a world of ills This large format profusely illustrated book covers twenty nine projects including Villa Trianon The Colony Club Anne Vanderbilt Anne Morgan the Duchess of Windsor and J Ogden Armour to name a few and concludes with a timeline of her works Written by English decorative arts scholar Penny Sparke and edited by New York Times contributor Mitchell Owens Elsie de Wolfe The Birth of Modern Interior Decoration presents the most in depth look ever into the design aesthetic of this early twentieth century master decorator AUTHOR Penny Sparke is Professor of Design History and Pro Vice Chancellor of Kingston University London She is the author of over a dozen books on twentieth century design Her best known publications include An Introduction to Design and Design and most recently A Century of Design and A Century of Car Design She has also curated a number of exhibitions and has broadcast widely on her specialist area Mitchell Owens is a style and design correspondent for The New York Times a consulting editor of Elle Decor and a frequent contributor to Travel Leisure Owens was a co curator of Inside Design Now the 2003 triennial of the Cooper Hewitt National Design Museum and author of twenty one essays in the exhibition s catalogue He is also an independent scholar of the history of interior design with a specialty in American decorators of the early twentieth century 330 duotone and 14 colour illustrations Railroad History ,1996

The Hutton Settlement Doris Hinson Pieroth,2003 The Hutton Settlement in Spokane Washington is a remarkable embodiment of philanthropy altruism and stewardship L W Hutton built and endowed his home for children orphaned or otherwise in need of a secure shelter with wealth gleaned from the silver of Idaho s Coeur d Alene mining district Herein is a chronicle of that unique venture beginning with the story of Levi Hutton his rise to riches and the construction of the home s impressive buildings and pastoral campus It reflects eighty years of change in the theory and practice of child care and is based on the Settlement s official records as well as press accounts and interviews Journal of the West Lorrin L. Morrison,Carroll Spear Morrison,1997 Current Geographical Publications University of Wisconsin--Milwaukee. Library,1995 Current Geographical Publications CGP is a non profit service to the scholarly community initiated in 1938 by the American Geographical Society of New York Beginning in 2006 the format changed to include the tables of contents of current geographical journals The journal titles listed link to web pages or PDF scans of the current issue s contents
