Shaping The Discourse On Space:

Shaping Space and Mobilities in Contemporary Walking Narratives Adrien Frenay, Giulio Iacoli, Lucia Quaquarelli, 2024-12-22 Shaping Space and Mobilities in Contemporary Walking Narratives represents an exploration of the dynamic intersections between mobility space and literature By focusing on walking as both a practice and a narrative device the book illustrates how mobilities shape and reconfigure our experiences of space Drawing from both literary and interdisciplinary approaches the contributors engage with diverse themes including urban flânerie rural wanderings migration and queer spatialities The research presented here shows how literary discourse mediates and constructs human relationships with space and place Addressing with key theoretical movements such as the narrative spatial and mobilities turns this book contributes to the recent humanities turn by advancing discussions within mobility studies particularly in French and Italian contexts

Cities and the Shaping of Memory in the Ancient Near East Ömür Harmanşah, 2013-03-18 This book investigates the practice of constructing cities in the ancient Near East bringing together architecture and cultural history

Shaping the Post-Soviet Space? Laure Delcour, 2016-04-01 While the European Union EU is widely perceived as a model for regional integration the encouragement of regional co operation also ranks high among its foreign policy priorities Drawing on a wealth of sources and extensive fieldwork conducted in the Commonwealth of Independent States CIS Laure Delcour questions the pursuit of this external objective in EU policies implemented in the CIS and the existence of an EU regional vision in the post Soviet area She asks does the recent compartmentalization of EU policies correspond to a growing fragmentation of the former Soviet Union that cannot be considered as a region anymore Does it rather reflect the EU s own interests in the area Interested in exposing why the EU has not pursued a strategy of region building in the post Soviet area Delcour examines the disintegration dynamics affecting the area following the collapse of the USSR the interplay between different actors and levels of action in EU foreign policy making and the role of other region builders She takes a closer look at the strategic partnership with Russia European Neighbourhood Policy Eastern Partnership and Black Sea Synergy as a capability test for the European foreign policy to promote its foreign policy priorities and to raise a distinctive profile in the international arena

Making European Space Ole Brandt Jensen, Tim Richardson, 2004 Making European Space crystallises and critically examines the key policy ideas emerging in the new field of European spatial planning and explores the arguments surrounding policy themes such as polycentric development sustainability

Following Jesus in Invaded Space Chris Budden, 2009-05-04 Christianity is never just about beliefs but habits and practices for better or worse Theology always reflects the social location of the theologian including her privileges and prejudices all the time working with a particular often undisclosed notion of what is normal Therefore theology is never neutral it defends particular constructions of reality and it promotes certain interests Following Jesus in Invaded Space asks what and whose interests theology protects when it is part of a community that invaded the land of Indigenous peoples

Developing a theological method and position that self consciously acknowledges the church's role in occupying Aboriginal land in Australia it dares to speak of God church and justice in the context of past history and continuing dispossession Hence a Second people's theology emerges through constant and careful attention to experiences of invasion and dis location brought into dialogue with the theological landscape or tradition of the church Shaping Claims to Urban Land Fons van Overbeek, 2022-10-03 The concept of hybridity is often still poorly theorized and problematically applied by peace and development scholars and researchers of resource governance This book turns to a particular ethnographic reading of Michel Foucault's Governmentality and investigates its usefulness to study precisely those mechanisms processes and practices that hybridity once promised to clarify Claim making to land and authority in a post conflict environment is the empirical grist supporting this exploration of governmentality Specifically in the periphery of Bukavu This focus is relevant as urban land is increasingly becoming scarce in rapidly expanding cities of eastern Congo primarily due to internal rural to urban migration as a result of regional insecurity The governance of urban land is also important analytically as land governance and state authority in Africa are believed to be closely linked and co evolve An ethnographic reading of governmentality enables researchers to study hybridization without biasing analysis towards hierarchical dualities Additionally a better understanding of hybridization in the claim making practices may contribute to improved government intervention and development assistance in Bukavu and elsewhere Racing to Make Space Joshua D. Vadeboncoeur, 2025-08-14 This book explores the often overlooked experiences of Black NASCAR fans challenging the sport's traditional image as a stronghold of Southern white conservatism Through a narrative inquiry approach the book examines how Black fans navigate and transform NASCAR's cultural and spatial landscapes Divided into three sections it delves into Black placemaking within NASCAR the impact of pervasive whiteness in the sport's geographies and offers practical recommendations for fostering greater inclusivity within NASCAR The presence and influence of Black fans within this space have largely been ignored in academic discourse media coverage and the sport's own self representation This book seeks to address this significant gap in the literature by providing a comprehensive and in depth examination of how Black fans engage with navigate and transform the cultural and spatial landscapes of NASCAR while providing actionable insights for creating more equitable and inclusive environments in American sports The Space of the Book Miranda Remnek, 2011-01-01 Skilfully connecting multidisciplinary sources along broad historical continuum The Space of the Book will be a valuable resource as the study of Russian print culture takes on new directions in a digitized world Stories of the Middle Space Deborah C. Bowen, 2010 Postmodernism's critics often accuse the movement of being dangerously amoral because of its apparent wariness of concepts such as truth ethics and justice Stories of the Middle Space explores the possibility of postmodernism with a conscience and examines a variety of British and Canadian postmodern fiction to show how twentieth century critical theory can be brought into fruitful dialogue with a faith based perspective Highlighting the wide variety of ethical concerns considered by writers such as Timothy Findley Thomas King Carol Shields Julian Barnes A S Byatt and Salman Rushdie Deborah Bowen makes the case for a new category of postmodern realism and shows how contemporary stories about the real and the good are constructed Applying theoretical insights from Emmanuel Levinas and Mikhail Bakhtin Bowen investigates categories of postmodern realism such as magic realism parody and metafiction while laying the groundwork for Christian readings of a medium that is often perceived as largely irreligious An illuminating study of well known contemporary writers Stories of the Middle Space is a critically nuanced and methodologically innovative work that reads the postmodern from a faith based perspectives to create new literary insights Deborah Bowen addresses the ethical concerns of a wide variety of postmodern fiction from a faith based perspective that engages with the decentred discourses of post structuralism She suggests that a focus on the middle space between language and the world not only provides new insights into the construction of the real and the notion of a good story but also resituates the possibility of Christian reading in a largely post Christian era BOOK JACKET American Book Publishing Record R.R.
