Sharpe's Waterloo Bernard Cornwell, 1990      Waterloo Men Philip J. Haythornthwaite, 1998-11 Waterloo has a claim to be the most discussed battle of all time It was the battle which finished the career of one of history's handful of indisputable military geniuses it brought to a close a 20 year old war and it altered the destinies of the great powers for nearly 100 years

Waterloo Campaign Albert A. Nofi, 1993-08-21 Albert Nofi has used his many years of research to produce an account of the battle of Waterloo that has all the grandeur and military detail one could want but which never loses its interest in individual human experience Here Napoleon rides forward to take personal command of a small detachment of French Marines to fight his way across the Sambre river on the way to Waterloo Hanoverian exiles who have been fighting Napoleon for a decade under English command are surrounded and wiped out in a classic last stand at the hour of victory The Waterloo Campaign also covers the death of the Duke of Brunswick the reconciliation of Napoleon and his estranged brother Jerome in the crucible of battle and the tragic loss and miraculous delivery of many ordinary people In addition to its popular appeal Albert Nofi's The Waterloo Campaign has found favor with the most demanding of military enthusiasts Waterloo is a Military Book Club Main Selection in the U S and has been selected for a special European edition Special features of The Waterloo Campaign include the most complete orders of battle available for the British French and Prussian armies a detailed comparison of artillery and musketry capabilities sidebars profiling many of the personalities of the campaign weather conditions for each hour of the battle and the best informed estimates available on unit strengths and casualties for horses as well as humans during the campaign New York educator Albert Nofi appeared frequently as a radio and TV military commentator during the Persian Gulf War always balancing the grand principles of command against the individual human drama He is the author of numerous books including The Spanish American War 1898 The Marine Corps Book of Lists and The War Against Hitler      Waterloo: The Campaign of 1815, Volume 2 John Hussey, 2017-09-30 Winner of the 2019 RUSI Duke of Wellington Medal for Military History Winner of the 2017 Society for Army Historical Research Templer Medal Shortlisted for Military History Monthly's Book of the Year Award The first of two groundbreaking volumes on the Waterloo campaign this book is based upon a detailed analysis of sources old and new in four languages It highlights the political stresses between the Allies and their resolution it studies the problems of feeding and paying for 250 000 Allied forces assembling in Belgium during the undeclared war and how a strategy was thrashed out It studies the neglected topic of how the slow and discordant Allies beyond the Rhine hampered the plans of Blücher and Wellington thus allowing Napoleon to snatch the initiative from them Napoleons operational plan is analyzed and Soult's mistakes in executing it Accounts from both sides help provide a vivid impression of the fighting on the first day 15 June and the volume ends with the joint battles of Ligny and Quatre Bras the next day      History of the Waterloo Campaign William Siborne, 1990 With remarks upon the Rev G R Gleig's Story of Waterloo      A Voice from Waterloo, 1877      Waterloo: The Campaign of 1815, Volume 1

John Hussey, 2017-06-12 This the fourth volume in Andrew Field's highly praised study of the Waterloo campaign from the French perspective depicts in vivid detail the often neglected final phase the rout and retreat of Napoleon's army. The text is based exclusively on French eyewitness accounts which give an inside view of the immediate aftermath of the battle and carry the story through to the army's disbandment in late 1815. Many French officers and soldiers wrote more about the retreat than they did about the catastrophe of Waterloo itself. Their recollections give a fascinating insight to the psyche of the French soldier. They also provide a firsthand record of their experiences and the range of their reactions from those who deserted the colors and made their way home to those who continued to serve faithfully when all was lost. Napoleon's own flight from Waterloo is an essential part of the narrative but the main emphasis is on the fate of the beaten French army as it was experienced by eyewitnesses who lived through the last days of the campaign. A Voice from Waterloo Edward

Cotton, 1895 The Waterloo Campaign, 1815 William Siborne, 1848 Waterloo John Hussey, 2017-12-19 The concluding volume of this work provides a fresh description of the climatic battle of Waterloo placed in the context of the whole campaign. It discusses several vexed questions: Blücher's intentions for the battle; Wellington's choice of site; his reasons for placing substantial forces at Hal; the placement of Napoleon's artillery; who authorized the French cavalry attacks; Grouchy's role on 18 and 19 June; Napoleon's own statements on the Garde's formation in the final attack and the climactic moment when the Prussians reached Wellington's troops near la Belle Alliance. Close attention is paid to the negotiations that led to the capitulation of Paris and subsequent French claims. The allegations of Las Cases and later historians that Napoleon's surrender to Captain Maitland of the Bellerophon amounted to entrapment are also examined. After a survey of the peace settlement of 1815 the book concludes with a masterly chapter reviewing the whole story of the 1815 campaign. 24

Hours at Waterloo Robert Kershaw, 2014-08-28 One of the lancers rode by and stabbed me in the back with his lance. I then turned and lay with my face upward and a foot soldier stabbed me with his sword as he walked by. Immediately after another with his firelock and bayonet gave me a terrible plunge and while doing it with all his might exclaimed: Sacré nom de Dieu! The truly epic and brutal battle of Waterloo was a pivotal moment in history: a single day, one 24-hour period defined the course of Europe's future. In March 1815 the Allies declared war on Napoleon in response to his escape from exile and the renewed threat to imperial European rule. Three months later on 18 June 1815, having suffered considerable losses at Quatre Bras, Wellington's army fell back on Waterloo, some ten miles south of Brussels. Halting on the ridge, they awaited Napoleon's army blocking their entry to the capital. This would become the Allies' final stand: the infamous battle of Waterloo. In this intimate hour-by-hour account, acclaimed military historian Robert Kershaw resurrects the human stories at the centre of the fighting, creating an authoritative single-volume biography of this landmark battle. Drawing on his profound insight and a field knowledge of military strategy, Kershaw takes the reader to where the impact of the orders was felt: straight into the heart of the battle, shoulder to shoulder with the soldiers on the mud-splattered ground. Masterfully weaving together painstakingly researched eyewitness accounts diaries and letters many never before seen or published this gripping portrayal of Waterloo offers unparalleled authenticity Extraordinary images of the men and women emerge in full colour the voices of the sergeants the exhausted foot soldiers the boy ensigns the captains and the cavalry troopers from both sides rise from the page in vivid and telling detail as the fate of Europe hangs by a thread Journal of the Waterloo Campaign Cavalié Mercer,1870

T. Siborne,2015-07-10 Excerpt from Waterloo Letters A Selection From Original and Hitherto Unpublished Letters Bearing on the Operations of the 16th 17th and 18th June 1815 by Officers Who Served in the Campaign When my father the late Captain William Siborne Unattached was engaged in the construction of his Model of the Battle of Waterloo he was authorised by the General Commanding in Chief Lord Hill to issue a Circular Letter to the several surviving Officers of the Battle who might be in a position to afford him the information necessary for the completion of his undertaking Copies of this letter and of the plan which accompanied it on one half the original scale are annexed A great number of letters were sent to him in reply and subsequently when writing his History of the Campaign he received many additional letters and memoranda relating not only to the precise period of the Battle represented on the Model but also to the operations and incidents of the Campaign generally These letters were written to Captain Siborne with the knowledge that the information contained in them would be conveyed to the public The greater number of the letters amounting to several hundreds are still in my possession and as the 75th anniversary of the Battle occurred last year and general attention has been redirected to that great event I have thought that the publication of a selected portion of them might be of interest not only to the Army particularly to those Regiments or Corps which took part in the Campaign but also to the public generally Many families and individuals will here find recorded the original accounts given by relatives who served in the Waterloo Campaign of what they experienced and of the parts which they played in it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
