Shattering The Myth Islam Beyond Violence:

Shattering the Myth Bruce B. Lawrence, 2000-04-30 Islam Bruce Lawrence argues is a complex international religious system that cannot be reduced to stereotypes As Lawrence demonstrates Islam is a religion shaped as much by its own postulates and ethical demands as by the specific circumstances of Muslim people in the modern world It is time Lawrence believes to replace inaccurate images of Islam with a recognition of the multifaceted character of this global religion and of its widely diverse adherents Shattering the Myth provides significant insights into the history of Islam and a greater understanding of the varied experiences of Muslims today Shattering the Myth Bruce B. Lawrence, 2000 On Violence Bruce B. Lawrence, Aisha Karim, 2007-12-06 An interdisciplinary collection of primary texts on the subject of violence from Freud to Gramsci to Foucault from Ghandi to Osama bin Laden The editors introductions frame the texts within questions of how violence is generated and perpetuated in so The Bruce B. Lawrence Reader Bruce B.

Young Islam Avi Max Spiegel, 2017-03-14 How the competition for young recruits is creating rivalries among Islamists today Today two thirds of all Arab Muslims are under the age of thirty Young Islam takes readers inside the evolving competition for their support a competition not simply between Islamism and the secular world but between different and often conflicting visions of Islam itself Drawing on extensive ethnographic research among rank and file activists in Morocco Avi Spiegel shows how Islamist movements are encountering opposition from an unexpected source each other In vivid and compelling detail he describes the conflicts that arise as Islamist groups vie with one another for new recruits and the unprecedented fragmentation that occurs as members wrangle over a shared urbanized base Looking carefully at how political Islam is lived expressed and understood by young people Spiegel moves beyond the top down focus of current research Instead he makes the compelling case that Islamist actors are shaped more by their relationships to each other than by their relationships to the state or even to religious ideology By focusing not only on the texts of aging elites but also on the voices of diverse and sophisticated Muslim youths Spiegel exposes the shifting and contested nature of Islamist movements today movements that are being reimagined from the bottom up by young Islam The first book to shed light on this new and uncharted era of Islamist pluralism in the Middle East and North Africa Young Islam uncovers the rivalries that are redefining the next generation of political Islam Schooling Islam Robert W. Hefner, Muhammad Qasim Zaman, 2010-12-16 Since the Taliban seized Kabul in 1996 the public has grappled with the relationship between Islamic education and radical Islam Media reports tend to paint madrasas religious schools dedicated to Islamic learning as medieval institutions opposed to all that is Western and as breeding grounds for terrorists Others have claimed that without reforms Islam and the West are doomed to a clash of civilizations Robert Hefner and Muhammad Qasim Zaman bring together eleven internationally renowned scholars to examine the varieties of modern Muslim education and their implications for national and global politics The contributors provide new insights into Muslim culture and politics in countries as different as Morocco Egypt Pakistan India Indonesia Iran and Saudi Arabia They demonstrate that Islamic education is neither timelessly traditional nor medieval but rather complex evolving and diverse in its institutions and practices They reveal that a struggle for hearts and minds in Muslim lands started long before the Western media discovered madrasas and that Islamic schools remain on its front line Schooling Islam is the most comprehensive work available in any language on madrasas and Islamic education International Law and Islam Ignacio de la Rasilla del Moral, Ayesha Shahid, 2018-12-10 International Law and Islam Historical Explorations offers a unique opportunity to examine the Islamic contribution to the development of international law in historical perspective The role of Islam in its various intellectual political and legal manifestations within the history of international law is part of the exciting intellectual renovation of international and global legal history in the dawn of the twenty first century The present volume is an invitation to engage with this thriving development after generations of prejudiced writing regarding the notable contribution of Islam to international law and its history Global Responses to Terrorism Mary Buckley, Rick Fawn, 2004-02-24 The terrorist attacks of September 11th and more recent atrocities in Russia Indonesia and Kenya have demonstrated that terrorism now poses the most dangerous threat to stability democracy and prosperity around the world This major new book examines how the world has reacted to and been affected by the attacks on September 11th ensuing war in Afghanistan and President George W Bush s declaration of a war on terror as the first war of the 21st century The contributions by distinguished specialists in the field examine the domestic implications of terrorism and counter terrorist initiatives across the world Few books can boast the quality and range of the contributions to this volume which locate the war on terror in a truly global and intellectual context Islam, Fundamentalism, and the Betrayal of Tradition, Revised and Expanded Joseph E.B. Lombard, 2009-08-16 This fully revised edition of the critically acclaimed book contains a series of essays that explain the misconceptions that lie at the heart of Western attitudes towards Islam Including a new essay on the role of women in Islam an updated chapter containing insights into the concept of Jihad and three fully revised chapters that bring the discussion up to date with the current global situation this book is a must read for anyone interested in Islam and its relation to the West Historical Dictionary of Islamic Fundamentalism Mathieu Guidère, 2017-09-20 After the rise of the Islamic State in the Middle East and the new geopolitical landscape in this region it is essential for the modern reader to understand the history that has allowed for and influenced these types of Islamic groups to form Historical Dictionary of Islamic Fundamentalism acts as a didactic resource that explains from the Islamic perspective the historical importance of the Islamic fundamentalist world This dictionary provides a comprehensive and thorough analysis of various groups events movements key figures and dogmas that have influenced contemporary Islamic fundamentalism A chronology spanning 600 years graphs of complex Islamic group associations and alliances and an Arabic to English glossary have all been included to facilitate a complete understanding of the nuances and generalities that have shaped this movement This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Islamic Fundamentalism also contains an introduction appendixes an extensive bibliography and more than 700 cross referenced entries on ideologies people events and movements of the 20th and 21st centuries Can Islam Be French? John R. Bowen, 2011-11-06 Bowen asks not the usual question how well are Muslims integrating in France but rather how do French Muslims think about Islam In particular Bowen examines how French Muslims are fashioning new Islamic institutions and developing new ways of reasoning and teaching He looks at some of the quite distinct ways in which mosques have connected with broader social and political forces how Islamic educational entrepreneurs have fashioned niches for new forms of schooling and how major Islamic public actors have set out a specifically French approach to religious norms from publisher description American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 22:1 Muhamad Ali, Hairul Azlan Annuar, Mucahit Bilici, M. Zakyi Ibrahim, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS is an interdisciplinary journal that publishes a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world anthropology economics history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Submissions are subject to a blind peer review process

Roads to Reconciliation: Conflict and Dialogue in the Twenty-first Century Amy Benson Brown, Karen M.

Poremski, 2014-12-18 Unlike other books on conflict resolution that focus on particular places and moments in history this original work attempts to understand the process from many different perspectives and in many different contexts from international political conflicts to racial and religious struggles within one culture to the internal conflicts of individuals struggling with the desire for revenge in the wake of 9 11 Designed as a starting point for meaningful dialogue on the elusive concept of reconciliation the book includes views from Christians and Muslims scholars and politicians and draws on religion psychology cultural studies education theory history and law Islam in Pakistan Muhammad Qasim Zaman, 2020-08-04 The first book to explore the modern history of Islam in South Asia The first modern state to be founded in the name of Islam Pakistan was the largest Muslim country in the world at the time of its establishment in 1947 Today it is the second most populous after Indonesia Islam in Pakistan is the first comprehensive book to explore Islam's evolution in this region over the past century and a half from the British colonial era to the present day Muhammad Qasim Zaman presents a rich historical account of this major Muslim nation insights into the rise and gradual decline of Islamic modernist thought in the South Asian region and an understanding of how Islam has fared in the contemporary world Much attention has been given to Pakistan's role in sustaining the Afghan struggle against the Soviet occupation in the 1980s in the growth of the Taliban in the 1990s and in the War on Terror after 9 11 But as Zaman shows the nation's significance in matters relating to Islam has much deeper roots Since the late nineteenth century South Asia has witnessed important initiatives toward rethinking core Islamic texts and traditions in the interest of their compatibility with the imperatives of modern life Traditionalist scholars and their institutions too have had a prominent presence in the region as have Islamism and Sufism Pakistan did not merely inherit these and other aspects of Islam Rather it has been and remains a site of intense contestation over Islam's public place meaning and interpretation Examining how facets of Islam have been pivotal in Pakistani history Islam in Pakistan offers sweeping perspectives on what constitutes an Islamic state

The Societies of the Middle East and North Africa Sean Yom, 2021-07-21 The second edition of this well regarded volume explores the societies of the Middle East and North Africa Presenting original studies written by the world's leading MENA scholars it sheds light upon the organizing structures human vulnerabilities and dynamic forces that propel social change among the peoples of the Arab world as well as Israel Turkey and Iran The volume can be used in conjunction with The Government and Politics of the Middle East and North Africa textbook for a comprehensive overview of the region Carrying over from the previous edition among the rich topics covered are agriculture urbanization development identity citizenship gender religion civil society the environment and youths This second edition adds two new chapters on refugees and public opinion as each constitutes a crucial part of the region's social and cultural context This edition also updates existing chapters to account for the latest events and trends including the COVID 19 pandemic popular protests and demographic growth Written in an accessible way the chapters are clearly structured and contain insightful analysis memorable case studies illustrative photographs and visualized data that illuminate the contours of social life across this diverse region Each chapter also ends with curated questions for discussion followed by annotated bibliographies to help spark further research to encourage seamless adoption into classrooms

Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics Tahir Abbas, 2011-03-01 The expression of an Islamic political radicalism in Britain has been one of the most dramatic developments in recent decades Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics explores the nature of this phenomenon by analysing the origins of Islam and its historical contact with Western Europe and Britain and the emergence of Islamic political radicalism in the Muslim world and in the West Tahir Abbas draws on historical analysis and contemporary case studies to explore the post war immigration and integration of Muslim groups the complex relations that exist between a secular liberal Britain and a diverse but multifaceted Islam and the extent of social and economic inequalities that affect Muslims as individual citizens and in local area communities He shows how violent extremism among British Muslims is in reality influenced by a range of issues including the factors of globalisation and contemporary politics media and culture Analysing and dissecting public policy Abbas offers suggestions for tackling the major social political and economic questions facing British Muslims in the post 7 7 era An important contribution to the study of religion race and ethnicity in modern Britain this accessible work will be of interest to anyone working in the field of Islamic studies sociology and political radicalism Cover design by Mahtab Hussain www.mahtabhussain.com Islamic Ethics of Life Jonathan E. Brockopp, 2021-02-09 2005 Choice Outstanding Academic Title A pioneering work on controversial issues within the Muslim world Islamic Ethics of Life considers three of the most contentious ethical issues of our time abortion war and euthanasia from the Muslim perspective Distinguished scholars of Islamic studies have collaborated to produce a volume that both integrates Muslim thinking into the field of applied ethics and introduces readers to an aspect of the religion long overlooked in the West This collective effort sets forth the relationship between Islamic ethics and law clearly revealing the complexity and richness of the Islamic tradition as well as its responsiveness to these controversial modern issues The contributors analyze classical sources and survey the modern ethical landscape to identify guiding principles within Islamic ethical thought Clarifying the importance of pragmatism in Islamic decision making the contributors also offer case studies related to specialized topics including wrongful birth claims terrorist attacks and brain death The case studies elicit possible variations on common Muslim perspectives The contributors situate Muslim ethics relative to Christian and secular accounts of the value of human life exposing surprising similarities and differences In an introductory overview of the volume Jonathan E Brockopp underscores the steady focus on God as the one who determines the value of human life and hence as the final arbiter of Islamic ethics A foreword by Gene Outka places the volume in the context of general ethical studies and an afterword by A Kevin Reinhart suggests some significant ramifications for comparative religious ethics
