The Storycatcher Ann Hite,2013-09-10 After Faith a pastor s daughter is haunted by a ghost who threatens to reveal her father s sins she turn to Shelley a young servant who sees the dead and they journey through the South together looking for answers

The Girls in the Office Jack Olsen,2020-06-17 A compilation of multiple case histories of single women of various ages who all work for the same company in New York City He never reveals who the company is after decades of thought and a little research I think I figured it out but that isn t important What IS important is the lives of these women how they feel about their lifestyle how they feel about their work how they feel about the company and how they feel about each other If you ever sensed that the faces we wear in public have little to do with who we really are and how we really feel this book will solidify that feeling All of the women are very unique some you admire some you pity some you dislike But all are fascinating It s a flashback to the 1970 s and the early stages of the women s liberation movement It will leave you wondering where these women are today and what became of their lives

Post-War Identification Torsten Kolind,2008-11-12 Stolac the town of departure for this book and the site where the author conducted fieldwork is located in the south western corner of Bosnia Herzegovina The war in Bosnia Herzegovina 1992 95 was initially an act of aggression and territorial conquest instigated by Serbian political leaders However as the war progressed it increasingly came to consist of several minor wars one of them fought in Western Bosnia Herzegovina between Croatian and Muslim forces This was the one that affected the inhabitants of Stolac the most Before the war ethnic identity in Bosnia Herzegovina was only one identity among others and ethnic differences were embedded in everyday practices Today ethnic difference is all there is The Muslims of Stolac are fully aware that as Muslims they constitute a totally separate group and that ethnic identity is by far the most important form of identity in present day Bosnia Herzegovina In that regard the nationalist project has succeeded Such a crystallisation and explication of identity fits in well with the structurally inspired anthropology of war and violence which theorises that the function of violence is to create unambiguous identities However Post War Identities shows that for the Muslims of Stolac the creation of unambiguous ethnic identities is only half the story
