silent so long as the vision of agency is shackled to dominant feminist precepts Mindful of this problem the book examines Muslim women's legal agency with respect to the family their claims making upon the state livelihoods and the impact of male outmigration on left behind wives Working across these domains of everyday life contributors highlight how women's vulnerabilities within their families dovetail with oppressions experienced in the local state the labour market and in the streets Women's economic locations continue to shape their agency in crucial ways with upward mobility often entailing greater restrictions on women's mobility and independence yet the chapters caution against romanticising the ironic independence of poverty Collectively this volume showcases Muslim women's diverse identities and desires that may be sidelined in dominant concepts of agency This book will be beneficial for scholars and students of South Asian Studies interested in gender justice politics and the intersection of religion culture and identity The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Contemporary South Asia

Ordinary Sudan, 1504-2019 Elena Vezzadini, Iris Seri-Hersch, Lucie Revilla, Anael Poussier, Mahassin Abdul Jalil, 2023-07-24 This book starts from the premise that the study of exceptionally normal women and men as conceived by microhistory has radical implications for understanding history and politics and applies this notion to Sudan Against a historiography dominated by elite actors and international agents it examines both how ordinary people have brought about the most important political shifts in the country's history including the recent revolution in 2019 and how they have played a role in maintaining authoritarian regimes It also explores how men and women have led their daily lives through a web of ordinary worries desires and passions The book includes contributions by historians anthropologists and political scientists who often have a dual commitment to Middle Eastern and African studies While focusing on the complexity and nuances of Sudanese local lives in both the past and the present it also connects Sudan and South Sudan with broader regional global and imperial trends The book is divided into two volumes and six parts ordered thematically The first part tackles the entanglement between archives social history and power The second focuses on women's agency in history and politics from the Funj era to the recent 2018 2019 revolution Part 3 includes contributions on the history and global connections of the Sudanese armed forces In the second volume part 4 intersects the themes of urban life leisure and colonial attitudes with queerness In part 5 labour identities practices and institutions are discussed both in urban milieus and against the background of war and expropriation in rural areas Finally part 6 studies the construction of social consent under various self-styled Islamic regimes as well as the emergence of alternative imaginaries and acts of citizenship in times of political openness
