Method And Message Of Matthew:

The Method and Message of Jesus' Teachings Robert H. Stein, 1994-01-01 This useful and practical book provides the college student seminarian church study group and interested lay person with a much needed introductory guide on the how method and the what message of Jesus teachings In this revised edition Robert Stein updates his classic work adds a new bibliography and introduces use of the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible bringing this important text to a new generation of students The Method and Message of Matthew Augustine Stock, 1994 A Michael Glazier book Includes index The Restoration of Messianic Hope Brian Main, 2025-06-25 The New Testament portrays the apostles as placing great emphasis on Jesus resurrection in their preaching and teaching This emphasis is often lacking however in contemporary preaching and teaching If Jesus resurrection is to regain the centrality it held in the apostolic age its significance must be understood In this study Brian Main attempts to understand the significance of Jesus resurrection in the Gospel of Matthew Since Jesus resurrection is the proper conclusion of the story in Matthew it is necessary to understand what the story is that it concludes By analyzing the characters settings plot and point of view in Matthew 1 1 4 11 as well as those in the resurrection narrative 28 1 20 Main and his readers come to grasp the expectations that Matthew s audience develops as that story unfolds As readers understand those expectations they will gain a better appreciation of what was at stake when Jesus experienced opposition and therefore of what was restored and guaranteed by his resurrection

Resolving the Tension of Jesus's Mission in Matthew's Ancient Biography Jerry D. Breen, 2024-10-03 Jerry D Breen argues that reading Matthew and all the Gospels as ancient biography is the necessary next step for Gospel studies In particular Breen contends that more specific comparisons should be made between the Gospels and ancient literature Breen stresses that this reading invites narrative critics to place more emphasis on examining the use of sources and the importance of intertextual and historical information that the author introduces to the text Breen places emphasis on the relationship between Jews and non Jews in ancient Galilee and Palestine and challenges the long supported theory that Jesus did not minister to non Jews beyond two or three exceptions Demonstrating that Jesus is inclusive of everyone who comes to him even though he was sent primarily to the Jews Breen argues that the portrait which Matthew creates is one of a Jewish Messiah who is on a mission to restore Israel so that the restored people of God can bless the nations Concluding that rather than two conflicting missions the audience of the gospel is encouraged to view the healing of non Jews during Jesus s ministry as further proof that the Jewish Messiah is bringing restoration to Israel Search, Ponder, and Pray Julie M. Smith, 2003-11 LDS readers already familiar with the New Testament will find a wealth of new insights into the cultural historical and literary background of the Gospels Research previously shrouded in academic jargon is presented in a way that is not only understandable but encourages readers to evaluate the evidence for themselves and to draw their own conclusions Over 4 000 thought provoking questions allow readers to ponder the scriptures in new and exciting ways

Borders, Boundaries and the Bible Martin O'Kane, 2002-01-01 This collection focuses on the interdisciplinary nature of current biblical studies especially the interpretation of the Bible through the arts Its aim is to illustrate how the crossing of boundaries enriches our understanding of the text itself Contributors include Robert Carroll Mary Douglas Wendy Porter Edward Kessler Larry Kreitzer John Hull and Martin O Kane The themes embrace literature Kipling music Bach and art Holbein The editor contributes an introduction and an illustrated essay on the Flight into Egypt as an icon of refuge

Embedded Genres in the New Testament () Jeannine K. Brown, 2024-06-25 Recognizing what we are reading the genre is crucial for understanding any written work including the books of the New Testament However we may not always realize we use genre categories as we interpret whether explicitly or implicitly Embedded genres or genres within genres can substantively impact the interpretation of an entire New Testament book This short accessible book by a widely respected scholar and seasoned teacher introduces embedded genres their impact on New Testament interpretation and how they contribute to the message of the New Testament authors Jeannine Brown offers hermeneutical guidance for interpreting embedded genres and explores the hermeneutical questions they raise She focuses on three case studies of embedded genres that have been contested underidentified or underappreciated across the New Testament corpus the Christ poem in Philippians 2 riddles in Matthew and the household code in 1 Peter Students of the New Testament pastors and ministry leaders will value this work

The Theme of Recompense in Matthew's Gospel Blaine Charette, 2015-01-29 Matthew's theology of the Spirit has received scant scholarly attention a regrettable oversight since the evangelist is careful to note that the eschatological redemption described in his Gospel is the direct result of the activity of God's Spirit Matthew's narrative of God's restoring work which begins with Jesus and continues through his followers is informed by even as it extends the larger biblical narrative concerning God's creative redemptive and restorative work at the centre of which stands his Spirit his active presence As the study elaborates upon the broad sweep of Matthew's interest in the Spirit the operation of the Spirit is examined in relation to the three theological categories of christology soteriology and ecclesiology

The Names of God in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Máire Byrne, 2011-07-07 This book offers a welcome solution to the growing need for a common language in interfaith dialogue particularly between the three Abrahamic faiths in our modern pluralistic society The book suggests that the names given to God in the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Qur'an could be the very foundations and building blocks for a common language between the Jewish Christian and Islamic faiths On both a formal interfaith level as well as between everyday followers of each doctrine this book facilitates a more fruitful and universal understanding and respect of each sacred text exploring both the commonalities and differences between each theology and their individual receptions In a practical application of the methodologies of comparative theology Maire Byrne shows that the titles names and epithets given to God in the sacred texts of Judaism Christianity and Islam contribute towards similar images of God in each case and elucidates the importance of this for providing a viable starting point for interfaith dialogue      Isaiah's Christ in Matthew's Gospel Richard Beaton,2002-11-14 Matthew's Jesus is typically described as the humble compassionate messiah This 2002 book argues that this is however only half the story Matthew's theologically rich quotation of Isaiah 42:1-4 traditionally considered one of the four servant songs underscores that manifest in Jesus' powerful message and deeds particularly his healings and inclusion of the marginalized is the justice that was thought to accompany the arrival of the kingdom of God The study explores modifications to the text form of the Isaianic citations their relationship to the surrounding context and the rhetorical force of the final form It argues that the quotations are bi-referential functioning on both a narrative and theological level and also explores the issues surrounding the troublesome extraneous content It arrives at the conclusion that this citation was central to Matthew's understanding of Jesus' life and mission All told this study offers a refreshing exploration of Matthew's high ethical Christology

Matthew's Inclusive Story David B. Howell,2015-01-29 Matthew has been described as an inclusive story in which the experiences of the evangelist's post-Easter church are inscribed in the story of Jesus's earthly ministry This book explores the inclusive nature of the Gospel by means of reader response literary criticism Some recent redaction studies of Matthew are reviewed from the perspective of reader response criticism Then in an attempt to understand the interpretative moves readers make Matthew's story teller and audience are examined      From Synagogue to Ecclesia Charles E.

Carlston,Craig A. Evans,2014-09-11 Charles E. Carlston and Craig A. Evans show how the Evangelist took over a variety of traditions from Judaism and early Christianity and worked them into a theological portrait that would be accessible to both Jews and Gentiles as they became followers of Jesus Back cover      Human Centered Methods in Information Systems:

Current Research and Practice Clarke, Steve,Lehaney, Brian,1999-07-01 The 1980s and 1990s have seen a growing interest in research and practice in information systems design and development from a human centered perspective This interest is accelerated by the increase in organizations in which the human resource provides the means to key competitive advantage This book is a compilation of contributed chapters by researchers and practitioners addressing the relationships between human activity organizational issues and technology      Painting the Text Martin O'Kane,2007 In this masterly work Martin O'Kane shows artists at work as readers of the Bible and not simply as illustrators of biblical scenes The painter's eye commonly sees nuances and subtleties of plot and characterization in the biblical text that traditional biblical criticism has overlooked Focussing in fine detail on some well known biblical themes the deception of Isaac the depiction of Isaiah's suffering servant the visit of the Magi and the flight into Egypt among others O'Kane argues that modern readers need the artist's exegetical insight and engagement to appreciate the text fully Ranging widely over mediaeval Renaissance and modern art the author situates his work within the hermeneutical aesthetics of Hans Georg Gadamer Mieke Bal and Paolo Berdini Some 30 images are reproduced in the text      Irenaeus' Use of Matthew's Gospel in Adversus Haereses D.

Jeffrey Bingham,Dwight Jeffrey Bingham,1998 This book shows how Irenaeus creatively selects and develops distinctive Matthean material within his interpretive networks of other biblical texts in order to verbally and conceptually oppose the theses of the heretics and provide helpful language for his expression of the church's faith. He is attracted to this Matthean material not because it holds an extraordinary place in the canon but because in his view each gospel makes a distinctive but equal contribution to the church's canon and polemic. Irenaeus sees some of Matthew's distinctive contributions in terms of language which emphasizes Christ's humanity and virgin birth explains the theological and economical unity of the two covenants and opposes the heretics' cosmological anthropological Christological theological and economical dualism. Although the bishop works within the framework of the church's tradition the interpretive inter-textual networks he builds his magnification of particular terms and his polemic against dualism demonstrate his creative anti-heretic innovation. Rarely does he ever merely repeat the thought of a predecessor. Irenaeus exegetes Matthew for the church within a particular milieu using a methodology of inter-textual connection common to his milieu and developing theological language which counters the heretics of his milieu.

Community, Law and Mission in Matthew's Gospel Paul Foster, 2004 Revision of the author's thesis doctoral University of Oxford 2002

Heavenly Imagery and Symbolism in Matthew's Gospel Daehoon Kang, 2023-11-21 The present study explores the role of heavenly imagery and symbolism in the Gospel of Matthew. Historical background and narrative criticism are my main methods because the Old Testament and Second Temple Jewish texts form the historical backgrounds for the understanding of Matthew's heaven and Matthew uses heavenly imagery and symbolism to highlight his main themes in the gospel as a whole. This study investigates Matthew's distinctive materials and important texts having to do with heaven exploring their meanings and establishing their roles in each narrative section. Matthew describes heaven as the space where certain events reveal God's plan of salvation. Heaven is associated with such key matters as revelation and judgment. Each major discourse of Matthew focuses on heavenly imagery with judgment at its end culminating in the parable of the sheep and the goats Matt 25:31-46.

Fulfilled Israel according to Matthew's Plerosis Paradigm Andrew D. Dalton, 2024-03-13 Andrew D Dalton argues that for Matthew the fullness Israel enjoys through Christ is a share in the very fullness of God. A close examination of Matthew's fulfilment paradigm reveals a triplex via consisting of fundamental continuity radical discontinuity and transcendence completion.

Sports Ministry David B. Lewis, David Irby, William Galipault, Wayne Rasmussen, 2023-03-22 The hope of the Gospel is a universal message and sports are arguably the universal language. intersection of sports and faith compel students to contemplate positive and negative aspects of competition whether competitive sport is compatible with faith and ethical behavior in sport In addition students will gain a historical perspective of the sports ministry movement and be introduced to many sports ministries serving today at the local regional national and international levels With Sports Ministry students will gain the knowledge and tools to share their faith and offer hope to others through the universal language of sport Ancillaries for adopting instructors are available online Matthew's Parable of the Royal Wedding Feast Ruth Christa Mathieson, 2023-06-02 Ruth Christa Mathieson's unique reading of Matthew's parable of the royal wedding feast Matt 22:1-14 which concludes with the king's demand that one of the guests be bound and cast out into the outer darkness focuses on the means of the underdressed guest's expulsion Using sociorhetorical interpretation Mathieson draws the parable into conversation with early Jewish narratives of the angel Raphael binding hands and feet in Enoch Tobit and the protocol for expelling individuals from the community in Matt 18 She asserts that readers are invited to consider if the person who is bound and cast out is a danger to the little ones of the community of faith unless removed and restrained
