The Inheritors Brian Penton, 2003 In the Preface to Inheritors Brian Penton says the characters are fictional and then comments that this is not to say the book is a work of imagination He acknowledges that he would need a large volume to accurately reflect the many works he drew on for background and period This leaves open to interpretation whether or not the Cabell family in Inheritors might have been based on some or the more notorious of Queensland's nineteenth century European settlers This wide ranging saga of family conflict and social injustice leaves few of the skeletons of Queensland colonial past buried It is also known as Giant's Stride Landtakers 1934 and Inheritors 1936 are two parts of an unfinished trilogy depicting Queensland's early colonial period

Destiny's Obligation J. Kannegieter, 2004 We are intuitively interested in the history and future of human civilization Most people sense that the distant future will not be determined by fantastical circumstances sometimes depicted in contemporary Science Fiction but rather by decisions made by us and our descendants Destiny's Obligation is a realistic tale of intense drama on Earth and in Space set in the 29th century when typical human fallibility and selfish territorial interests have destroyed civilization in most places The principals are part of a group of space travelers who return to Earth after a 600 year voyage to a nearby star system What these descendants of the original explorers find is as much a surprise to them as it will be to the reader They cannot leave and must first deal with the aggressive inhabitants of a large earth satellite They visit Earth eventually and play a significant role in defeating the feuds that are threatening the survival of human society everywhere

Being and Neonness Luis De Miranda, 2024-05-21 A cultural and philosophical history of neon from Paris in the twentieth century to the perpetually switched on present day For most of us the word neon conjures images of lights colors nightlife and streets It evokes the poetry of city nights For Luis de Miranda neon is a subject of philosophical curiosity Being and Neonness is a cultural and philosophical history of neon from early twentieth century Paris to the electric perpetually switched on present day Manhattan It is an inspired journey through
