Reclaiming Identity Realist Theory:

Reclaiming Identity Paula M. L. Moya, Michael R. Hames-García, 2000-12-14 This collection of ten essays argues that identity is not just socially constructed but has real epistemic and political consequences They examine the way theory politics and activism clash with or complement each other providing an alternative to the widely influential understandings of identity Reclaiming Identity: Realist Theory and the Predicament of Postmodernism Moya, Paula M. L. (ed.), 2001

Identities has become very important in today's world in which globalisation tends to wipe out differences between groups It is one of the most hotly debated topics in many disciplines including literary theory and cultural studies This bold and groundbreaking collection of essays argues that identity is not just socially constructed but has real epistemic and political consequences for how people experience the world Identity Politics Reconsidered L. Alcoff, M. Hames-García, S.

Mohanty, Michael Hames-García, Paula M.L. Moya, 2006-01-09 Based on the ongoing work of the agenda setting Future of Minority Studies national research project Identity Politics Reconsidered reconceptualizes the scholarly and political significance of social identity It focuses on the deployment of identity within ethnic women's disability and gay and lesbian studies in order to stimulate discussion about issues that are simultaneously theoretical and practical ranging from ethics and epistemology to political theory and pedagogical practice This collection of powerful essays by both well known and emerging scholars offers original answers to questions concerning the analytical legitimacy of identity and experience and the relationships among cultural autonomy moral universalism and progressive politics Metamodernism Robin van den Akker, Alison Gibbons, Timotheus Vermeulen, 2017-11-29 Metamodernism Historicity Affect Depth brings together many of the most influential voices in the scholarly and critical debate about post postmodernism and twenty first century aesthetics arts and culture By relating cutting edge analyses of contemporary literature the visual arts and film and television to recent social technological and economic developments the volume provides both a map and an itinerary of today's metamodern cultural landscape As its organising principle the book takes Fredric Jameson's canonical arguments about the waning of historicity affect and depth in the postmodern culture of western capitalist societies in the twentieth century and re-evaluates and reconceptualises these notions in a twenty first century context In doing so it shows that the contemporary moment should be regarded as a transitional period from the postmodern and into the metamodern cultural moment

Twenty-First-Century Feminist Classrooms S. Sánchez-Casal, A. MacDonald, 2002-09-13 This book is centrally concerned with crucial theoretical and practical aspects of teaching in the national and global borderlands of gender race and sexuality studies The cross cultural feminist focus of this anthology allows the contributors to consider the various ways in which global and national frameworks intersect in the classroom and in students thinking and also the ways in which power and authority are developed directed and deployed in the feminist classroom This volume provides a critical elaboration of provocative self reflexive questions for feminist cultural and intellectual practice for the 21st century In doing so the volume provides a site for engaged feminist self criticism for the specific purpose of reinvigorating a critical pedagogical practice grounded in multicultural feminist identities

Negras in Brazil Kia Caldwell, 2007-01-05 For most of the twentieth century Brazil was widely regarded as a racial democracy a country untainted by the scourge of racism and prejudice In recent decades however this image has been severely critiqued with a growing number of studies highlighting persistent and deep seated patterns of racial discrimination and inequality Yet recent work on race and racism has rarely considered gender as part of its analysis In Negras in Brazil Kia Lilly Caldwell examines the life experiences of Afro Brazilian women whose stories have until now been largely untold This pathbreaking study analyzes the links between race and gender and broader processes of social economic and political exclusion Drawing on ethnographic research with social movement organizations and thirty five life history interviews Caldwell explores the everyday struggles Afro Brazilian women face in their efforts to achieve equal rights and full citizenship She also shows how the black women s movement which has emerged in recent decades has sought to challenge racial and gender discrimination in Brazil While proposing a broader view of citizenship that includes domains such as popular culture and the body Negras in Brazil highlights the continuing relevance of identity politics for members of racially marginalized communities Providing new insights into black women s social activism and a gendered perspective on Brazilian racial dynamics this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Latin American Studies African diaspora studies women s studies politics and cultural anthropology

Identity in Education S. Sánchez-Casal, 2009-05-25 This volume explores the impact of social identity on teaching and learning The contributors argue from the perspective of diverse disciplinary and educational contexts that mobilizing identities in the classroom is a necessary part of progressive educators efforts to transform knowledge making and to create a more just and democratic society

Ethnic Studies Research Timothy P. Fong, 2008 Ethnic Studies Research synthesizes and benchmarks ethnic studies methodologies as interdisciplinary modes of inquiry providing state of the art summary chapters on key methods and issues extensive bibliographies and promising new directions for the future The study of ethnic groups and race relations has always existed in academia primarily in the areas of sociology and anthropology However grassroots movements for ethnic studies programs and departments developed with very different agendas for the study of these groups It is surprising then that relatively few books devoted to these methods exist to document and promote this innovation among succeeding generations of graduate students as well as current academics and professional practitioners Ethnic Studies Research is a step toward ending that void Book jacket

Psychologized Language in Education Zvi Bekerman, Michalinos Zembylas, 2017-10-02 This book explores how psychologized language has come to dominate education and schooling Taking a critical lens to some major constructs in education e g the mind the self identity emotion emotional intelligence motivation culture language and meaning and their grounding in psychologized discourses the authors suggest possible ways to overcome these psychologized discourses and remedy their consequences The book invites readers to move away from static reified conceptualizations to a more active social understanding of what education is all about The SAGE Handbook of Identities Margaret Wetherell, Chandra Talpade Mohanty, 2010-04-14 Increasingly identities are the site for interdisciplinary initiatives and identity research is at the heart of many transdisciplinary research centres around the world No single social science discipline owns identity research which makes it a difficult topic to categorize The SAGE Handbook of Identities systematizes this complex field by incorporating its interdisciplinary character to provide a comprehensive overview of its themes in contemporary research while still acknowledging the historical and philosophical significance of the concept of identity Drawing on a global scholarship the Handbook has four parts Part 1 Frameworks presents the main theoretical and methodological perspectives in identities research Part 2 Formations covers the major formative forces for identities such as culture globalisation migratory patterns biology and so on Part 3 Categories reviews research on the core social categories which are central to identity such as ethnicity gender sexuality disability and social class and intersections between these Part 4 Sites and Context develops a series of case studies of crucial sites and contexts where identity is at stake such as social movements relationships and family life work places and environments and citizenship
