Recollecting Mansfield:

Recollecting Mansfield Margaret Scott, 2001-01-01 Margaret Scott's world changed for ever at the age of 32 when her husband died unexpectedly leaving her with two children and another on the way. It was Katherine Mansfield, a writer she had always loved, who helped to give shape and purpose to the difficult lonely years that followed. For on becoming manuscripts librarian for the Alexander Turnbull Library, Margaret discovered a rich resource of Mansfield material. She spent most of the next 30 years deciphering her illegible handwriting, travelling to Europe and America in search of further Mansfield manuscripts and working towards the publication of The Collected Letters of Katherine Mansfield and The Katherine Mansfield Notebooks. Recollecting Mansfield chronicles the delights and disasters that Margaret experienced as her life and Mansfield's intersected. She gives fascinating insights into the extraordinary people she encountered from Mansfield's faithful companion Ida Baker to her own close friend Charles Brasch. This is a book of true charm and spirit, a moving, wise and witty account of a life spent in the company of one of this country's greatest writers. Shelf Life C. K. Stead, 2016-03-20 What ghost was being appeased? What wrong was being righted or sin atoned for? I didn't know. It was all this writing business and had been since it first began when I was still at school, mysterious, possibly even neurotic. I knew only that for a moment the world which out there seemed so imperfect, so fallen, so much less than the heart desired, in here had been called to order. Every morning for the last thirty years C. K. Stead has written fiction and poetry. Shelf Life collects the best of his afternoon work: reviews and essays, letters and diaries, lectures and opinion pieces. In this latest collection, a sequel to the successful Answering to the Language: The Writer at Work and Book Self, Stead takes the reader through nine essays in the Mansfield file, collects works of criticism and review, in book talk writes in the first person about everything from David Bain to Parnell, and finally offers some recent reflections on poetic laurels from his time as New Zealand poet laureate. Throughout, Stead is vintage Stead: clear, direct, intelligent, decisive, personal. Into Another's Skin: Selected Essays in Honour of María Luisa Daño Beitia María José de la Torre Moreno, Laura Torres Zúñiga, 2012-02-20 Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time. General questions of the literary, as e.g. the relation between literature and reality, truth and fiction, the dependency of author, narrator and figure, or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre. Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms. Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles, autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance. By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs, diaries, self-portraits and autofiction, as well as media transformations of the genre, this three-volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches, systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective. While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers
