Reconfigured Spheres Feminist Explorations Of Literary Space:

Reconfigured Spheres Margaret R. Higonnet, Joan Templeton, 1994 This collection of essays looks at the literary representations of space physical psychological political and cultural from a perspective that is at once comparative and feminist Combining historical analysis with literary theory the contributors explore the changing definitions of woman's place through such themes as exile and exclusion property and territoriality and the body as interface between individual and communal identities They show how maps of gender overlap with maps of status and how images of separate gender class and racial terrain have often insidiously helped define social relations and group identities Domestic Space Janet Floyd, Inga Bryden, 1999 This volume takes forward the debate about 19th century domestic space drawing on economic history and literary criticism To date studies of 19th century domestic space have discussed a feminized middle class sphere often using domestic guides and fictional representations of domesticity to generate their arguments Maeve Brennan Edward O'Rourke, 2024-10-30 This book explores the intricate interplay between physical spaces and psychological landscapes in the works of Irish American author Maeve Brennan Brennan's writing is now classed amongst the most important of twentieth century Irish women's fiction having undergone a significant reclamation and reappraisal in the 30 years since her death Single and childfree for most of her life Brennan eschewed the securities of family and home experiencing an otherness that she shared with her fellow New Yorkers many of them left she wrote hanging on to a city half capsized most of them still able to laugh as they cling to the island that is their life's predicament It is a suitably ambiguous expression for a writer who cultivated an interstitial existence whose stories inhere within a dream cycle of reiterative pasts and whose works augment and elevate the canon of radical Irish fiction The Oxford Handbook of Virginia Woolf Anne E. Fernald, 2021 A Handbook on Woolf's achievements as an innovative novelist and pioneering feminist theorist It studies her life her works her relationships with other writers her professional career and themes in her work including among others feminism sexuality education and class History, Literature and the Writing of the Canadian Prairies Alison Calder, Robert Wardhaugh, 2005-05-16 The Canadian Prairie has long been represented as a timeless and unchanging location defined by settlement and landscape Now a new generation of writers and historians challenge that perception and argue instead that it is a region with an evolving culture and history In a collection of ten essays History Literature and the Writing of the Canadian Prairies explores a more contemporary prairie identity and reconfigures the prairie as a construct that is non linear and diverse responding to the impact of geographical historical and political currents These writers explore the connections between document and imagination between history and culture and between geography and time The subjects of the essays range widely the non linear structure of Carol Shield's The Stone Diaries the impact of Aberhart's Social Credit Marshall McLuhan and Mesopotamian myth on Robert Kroetsch's prairie postmodernism the role of document in long prairie poems the connection between cultural tourism and heritage the theme of regeneration in Margaret Laurence

s Manawaka writing the influence of imagination on geography in Thomas Wharton s Icefields and the effects on an alpine climber of pre WWII ideological concepts of time and individualism Postnational Feminisms Hena Ahmad,2010 Postnational Feminisms Postcolonial Identities and Cosmopolitanism in the Works of Kamala Markandaya Tsitsi Dangarembga Ama Ata Aidoo and Anita Desai offers a significant contribution to the field of postcolonial and Third World feminist studies It reevaluates the ways in which Third World women writers interrogate the relationship between woman and nation in the postcolonial context Hena Ahmad brings forth the concept of postnational feminism which she deploys to show how these major writers challenge the role of women as signifiers of national cultures in their works This innovative concept illuminates the ambivalence of these uniquely positioned writers as Ahmad explores the connection between postnationalism and Third World feminism BOOK JACKET Fashioning the Feminine in the Greek Novel Katharine Haynes,2003 The Greek novel plays a key part in the debate on gender in antiquity forcing us to ask why the female protagonists are such strong and positive characters This book shows how such heroines can be seen as a type of constructed feminine Female Performers in British and American Fiction Barbara Straumann,2018-05-22 The female performer with a public voice constitutes a remarkably vibrant theme in British and American narratives of the long nineteenth century The tension between fictional female performers and other textual voices can be seen to refigure the cultural debate over the voice of women in aesthetically complex ways By focusing on singers actresses preachers and speakers this book traces and explores an important tradition of feminine articulation Drawing on critical approaches in literary studies gender studies and philosophy the book conceptualizes voice for the discussion of narrative texts Examining voice both as a thematic concern and as an aesthetic effect the individual chapters analyse how the actual articulation by female performers correlates with their cultural visibility and agency What this study foregrounds is how women characters succeed in making themselves heard even if their voices are silenced in the end The Life Writing of Otherness Lauren Rusk,2012-12-06 Focusing on innovative works by Woolf Baldwin Kingston and Winterson the author analyzes how they each represent the self as unique collectively other and inclusively human and how these conflicting aspects of selfhood interact Geopolitics John Agnew,2004-03-01 Geopolitics identifies and scrutinizes the central features of geopolitics from the sixteenth century to the present The book focuses on five key concepts of the modern geopolitical imagination Visualising the world as a whole The definition of geographical areas as advanced or primitive The notion of the state being the highest form of political organization The pursuit of primacy by competing states The necessity for hierarchy
