Reconstructing Religious Spiritual And Moral Education:

Reconstructing Religious, Spiritual, and Moral Education Clive Erricker, Jane Erricker, 2000 Focuses on the importance of transforming religious education and using its potential to address the worldviews of children Reconstructing Religious, Spiritual and Moral Education Clive Erricker, Jane Erricker, 2012-11-12 Religious Education is now identified as a shortage subject as a growing number of pupils in schools opt for it The growing emphasis on children's moral and spiritual education the DfEE's hunt for new teachers OFSTED's calls for improvement and reinforced links with philosophy have pushed the subject into the spotlight Based on research and partnership with schools this book examines and explains the role of Religious Education in the curriculum the role of spirituality in children's lives better teaching practice giving practical examples

Integrative Religious Education in Europe Wanda Alberts, 2012-02-14 This book is a contribution to the development of the young discipline of the didactics of the Study of Religions Religionswissenschaft in international perspective Integrative religious education refers to education about different religions in classrooms with children of various religious and non religious backgrounds Cornerstones of recent debates about theory and methodology in the academic study of religions and in education are discussed in the first chapter They form the basis of the following analysis and evaluation of current approaches to integrative religious education in Europe with a special focus on England and Sweden Particular attention is paid to the different underlying concepts of religion education and ways of representing religious plurality in these approaches Building on a discussion of the current situation of teaching and learning about religions in schools in Europe in the context of wider cultural social and political debates the book concludes with the suggestion of a framework for integrative religious education in Europe from a perspective that combines insights from the study of religions and education

International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world

Spirituality: Theory, Praxis and

Pedagogy ,2020-04-28 Spirituality, Philosophy and Education David Carr,John Haldane,2003-12-16 The contributors of this collection are all highly respected educational practitioners policymakers and philosophers The book examines the meaning role and possibilities of spirituality in education from a wide range of perspectives Rethinking Religious Education and Plurality Robert Jackson,2013-02 This book offers a critical view of approaches to the treatment of different religions in contemporary education in order to devise approaches to teaching and learning and to formulate policies and procedures that are fair and just to all MasterClass in Religious Education Liam Gearon,2013-03-28 A comprehensive guide to religious education ensuring a solid foundation for supporting effective learning and teaching Challenging Perceptions in Primary Education Margaret Sangster,2015-02-26 What are the beliefs that influence your professional practice Have you ever thought about why you make the decisions you make as a teacher What influences your teaching style Beyond the technical skills and knowledge aspects of education teachers and student teachers face questions which challenge their beliefs and approaches to their teaching and learning This book contains a series of short articles which not only offer guidance on key topics but encourage the reader to engage in reflecting on their own practice Questions explored include Is learning through practical work worth the effort What can we learn from comparisons with education in other countries Is there a smarter way to use digital imagery in your teaching What s the point of theory Isn t teaching just a craft

Negotiating Identity and Tradition in Single-faith Religious Education Inkeri Rissanen,2014 What kinds of process of negotiation are involved in teaching and studying Islam in a modern liberal context How can the common aims attached to liberal religious education in contemporary European multicultural societies be pursued in single faith education This book contributes to the search for legitimate and successful forms of religious education by presenting results from a case study examining Islamic education in Finnish schools Finnish Islamic education in which students study their own religion with aims drawn from the liberal educational paradigm offers a space for negotiating liberal educational values in an Islamic framework and negotiating Islam in its many contexts The findings demonstrate the possibilities as well as challenges in educating for autonomy tolerance and citizenship through religion The book also gives insights into students negotiations on diversity and tolerance that are important for all involved in any form of multicultural education These negotiations bring out distinct challenges in dealing with interreligious intrareligious and cultural differences and demonstrate how different understandings of tolerance in different ideological frameworks can cause confusion among students The results lead to a discussion of the educational needs of Muslim students in contemporary Western societies and the competencies their teachers need
