Reconstructing Yeats:

Reconstructing Yeats Steven Putzel, 1986-01-01 This book focuses on the two works in the subtitle as well as on unpublished manuscripts and notebooks in the Yeats collection of the National Library of Ireland The author argues that by the end of the 1890s Yeats had developed a coherent symbolic system based on his work with Irish folklore and mythology and that this system is most clearly delineated in the first editions of the work and in Yeats's unpublished papers The book begins with a study of Yeats's Irish and Celtic sources then moves on to outline the symbolic theory drawing heavily on Yeats's notebooks The theory is then applied in a critical study of the poems prose and plays of the last half of the 1890s Yeats The Poet Edward Larrissy, 2014-07-15 This work addresses Yeats's antinomies seeing their origin and structure in his divided Anglo Irish inheritance and examining the notion of measure It then explores how this relates to freemasonry Celticism and Orientalism and looks at the Blakean esoteric language of contrariety and outline which provided Yeats with the vocabulary of self understanding Reconstructing Ireland's Past Michael J. Kennedy, Deirdre McMahon, 2009 Yeats's Worlds David Pierce, 1995-01-01 The Plays of Samuel Beckett Katherine Weiss, 2013-01-31 The Plays of Samuel Beckett provides a stimulating analysis of Beckett's entire dramatic oeuvre encompassing his stage radio and television plays Ideal for students this major study combines analysis of each play by Katherine Weiss with interviews and essays from practitioners and scholars Ireland's Immortals Mark Williams, 2018-12-04 A sweeping history of Ireland's native gods from Iron Age cult and medieval saga to the Celtic Revival and contemporary fiction Ireland's Immortals tells the story of one of the world's great mythologies The first account of the gods of Irish myth to take in the whole sweep of Irish literature in both the nation's languages the book describes how Ireland's pagan divinities were transformed into literary characters in the medieval Christian era and how they were recast again during the Celtic Revival of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries A lively narrative of supernatural beings and their fascinating and sometimes bizarre stories Mark Williams's comprehensive history traces how these gods known as the Tatha D Danann have shifted shape across the centuries We meet the Morrigan crow goddess of battle the fire goddess Brigit who moonlights as a Christian saint the fairies who inspired J R R Tolkien's elves and many others Ireland's Immortals illuminates why these mythical beings have loomed so large in the world's imagination for so long Reconstructing Contexts Robert D. Hume, 1999 This book attempts to justify and theorize old historicism defining archaeo historicism as a method by which scholars can reconstruct past context in order to apply it to the interpretation of works and events of that time If such reconstruction is to be more than wildly impressionistic it must be grounded in hard evidence handled according to clear rules In this intriguing and rigorous analysis Robert Hume identifies legitimate objects for reconstruction and proposes procedures and principles by which such interpretation may be pursued He then examines the failures of the same method which works only when adequate evidence can be found In particular Hume flatly denies the intellectual legitimacy of literary history as it is commonly practised and attempts to disentangle such history from the practice of historicism The final chapter is devoted to a cogent discussion of how archaeo historicism relates to various forms of contemporary theory Hume offers a profusion of examples of good and bad historicist reconstruction and interpretation drawing largely on English literature but also on American and other world literatures theatre history and music theory Although addressed primarily to literary critics this wide ranging and bold work will be of interest to historians and cultural critics as well Reconstructing the History of Basin and Range Extension

Using Sedimentology and Stratigraphy Kathi K. Beratan,1996-01-01 The Challenge of Keats ,2016-09-27 Two centuries after his birth in October 1795 John Keats occupies a secure place in the canon of great literature of the western world But for much of the nineteenth century and even during periods of the twentieth century his right to such a position was not so firmly established On the bicentenary of Keats s birth various Italian scholars along with specialists from English speaking countries decided to take advantage of the occasion not only to render homage to a poet whose greatness now seems unchallenged but also to accept his continuing challenge to his readers The contributors to this volume re examine some of the harshest criticisms of Keats from Byron onwards and some of the unconditional exaltations of the poet in order to discover possible sites between the two for new critical impulses and fertile re evaluations of his achievement Under five headings Romantic Truth Textual Readings History and Myth Keats and Other Poets and Painting and Music the essays in this book appraise the historical cultural contexts that nurtured Keats s creativity discuss the influences and interrelationships among Keats and other poets and consider Keats s artistry as revealed in the analyses of particular texts

The Fateful Discourse of Worldly Things David Halliburton,1997-07-01 This broad interdisciplinary and comparative study of the ways in which we discursively make the world and its things aims to go beyond the poetic thinking of Heidegger toward a more pragmatic way of interpreting concrete social cultural and political experience The book outlines three constitutive functions of world making Endowing signifies the direct provision of the wherewithal that must come into being if anything else is to come into being Enabling develops or facilitates what is endowed it is a kind of education in being in the world Entitling embraces the realm of justice and decision it concerns what is right for human beings to have and do and be Placing these functions in contemporary contexts the book offers as an alternative some perspectives of American pragmatism Dewey Peirce James Mead Buchler and Continental philosophy Arendt Merleau Ponty Heidegger Husserl Barthes Gramsci The book closely examines the thinking of Hobbes Descartes Vico Calder n and Jefferson and several literary figures and thinkers Yeats Emerson Hopkins Baudelaire Pascal Rilke Frost Brecht Throughout the book investigates and questions the tradition of possessive individualism interpreted by modern scholars notably Pocock The book is in five parts Part I argues a need to move beyond deconstructing toward reconstructing Part II considers the interactions of endowing enabling and entitling In Part III the author explores the ways in which discourse works in the Cartesian discourse of reason and the phenomenon of Manifest Destiny as rendered by Frost The focus of Part IV is incorporating which builds on

Merleau Ponty's concept of flesh or the process by which the body acts and becomes fully worldly Part V addresses the phenomena of experience in a variety of modes including the role of story and natality experimental theater the epistolary novel and representations of the heroic Lucretia A postscript exploring the conclusion with which scholarly books typically end offers a perspectivist reading of the final text Emerson's Experience
