Reconstruction Of Europe After World War II:

The Reconstruction in Europe After World War II Carlo Maria Olmo, 1993 Trauma, Experience and Narrative in Europe after World War II Ville Kivimäki, Peter Leese, 2021-12-03 This book promotes a historically and culturally sensitive understanding of trauma during and after World War II Focusing especially on Eastern and Central Europe its contributors take a fresh look at the experiences of violence and loss in 1939-45 and their long term effects in different cultures and societies The chapters analyze traumatic experiences among soldiers and civilians alike and expand the study of traumatic violence beyond psychiatric discourses and treatments While acknowledging the problems of applying a present day medical concept to the past this book makes a case for a cultural social and historical study of trauma Moving the focus of historical trauma studies from World War I to World War II and from Western Europe to the east it breaks new ground and helps to explain the troublesome politics of memory and trauma in post 1945 Europe all the way to the present day This book is an outcome of a workshop project Historical Trauma Studies funded by the Joint Committee for the Nordic Research Councils in the Humanities and Social Sciences NOS HS in 2018-20 Chapters 4, 5 and 6 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link springer.com Rebuilding Europe's Bombed Cities Jeffry M. Diefendorf, 2015-12-30 An exploration of Europe's urban reconstruction after World War II this volume contains 12 essays based on new research which examine the significant architectural continuities in pre war and post war building They highlight the unusual character of rebuilding in several case studies Jewish Displaced Persons in Italy 1943-1951 Chiara Renzo, 2023-08-04 This book focuses on the experiences of thousands of Jewish displaced persons (DPs) who lived in refugee camps in Italy between the liberation of the southern regions in 1943 and the early 1950s waiting for their resettlement outside of Europe It explores the Jewish DPs daily life in the refugee camps and what this experience of displacement meant to them This book sheds light on the dilemmas the Jewish DPs faced when reconstructing their lives in the refugee camps after the Holocaust and how this challenging process was deeply influenced by their interaction with the humanitarian and political actors involved in their rescue rehabilitation and resettlement Relating to the peculiar context of post fascist Italy and the broader picture of the postwar refugee crisis this book reveals overlooked aspects that contributed to the making of an incredibly diverse and lively community in transit able to elaborate new paradigms of home belonging and family Splitting Europe Jens Stilhoff Sørensen, 2022-02-04 Europe today is deeply divided Thirty years after the end of the Cold War and the celebratory moment when the wall came down we are faced with a new Cold War Russia Western relations are arguably more dangerous than ever since the Cuban missile crisis Diplomatic relations are frozen sanctions installed the old arms control treaties abandoned and new nuclear weapons and carriers developed EU Europe itself is divided It is not just Brexit marking the first real break away from the Union but also clashes within From the yellow vests clashes with police in the heart of Paris to so called populist movements on the rise in the periphery and across the continent

The Visegrad countries Hungary Poland Slovakia Czech Republic are regularly at odds with the EU core Brussels and the France Germany axis to a degree where the idea of sanctions is invoked The Western security framework and NATO itself appears to break down with Turkey the NATO member with the organisations second largest military numerically now purchasing Russian weapon systems and seeking strategic relations in Eurasia How did it come to this and what happened with the post Cold War dream And what has happened to the post world war visions of European integration and security order What are the critical processes and events that have led us unto this path This book aims to address and explore these historical problems
