Recording Conceptual Art Early Int:

Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism MarinR. Sullivan, 2017-07-05 Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism is structured around four distinct but interrelated projects initially realized in Italy between 1966 and 1972 Yayoi Kusama's Narcissus Garden Michelangelo Pistoletto's Newspaper Sphere Sfera di giornali Robert Rauschenberg's Asphalt Rundown and Joseph Beuys's Arena These works all utilized non traditional materials collaborative patronage models and alternative modes of display to create a spatially and temporally dispersed arena of matter and action with photography serving as a connective material thread within the sculpture it reflects While created by major artists of the postwar period these particular projects have yet to receive substantive art historical analysis especially from a sculptural perspective Here they anchor a transnational narrative in which sculpture emerged as a node a center of transaction comprising multiple material phenomenon including objects images and actors When seen as entangled polymorphous entities these works suggest that the charge of sculpture in the late postwar period came from its concurrent existence as both three dimensional phenomena and photographic image in the interchanges among the materials that continue to activate and alter the constitution of sculpture within the contemporary sphere

Unconcealed, the International Network of Conceptual Artists 1967-77 Sophie Richard, 2009 Unconcealed describes the emergence of Conceptual art in Northern Europe through the growth of an international network of artists dealers museum curators collectors and critics A detailed account of this decade 1967-1977 is accompanied by an extensive set of previously unpublished data that charts the exhibitions and sales of Conceptual works to galleries public institutions and private collections The relationships support structures and strategies of dealer galleries such as Konrad Fischer Wide White Space and Lisson Gallery to promote artists such as Marcel Broodthaers Richard Long and Lawrence Weiner are revealed and make fascinating reading Unconcealed exposes the new dealing curatorial collecting and teaching methods formed in this decade that continue to be critical to today's art world

Circulations in the Global History of Art Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann, Catherine Dossin, Béatrice Joyeux-Prunel, 2016-03-03 The project of global art history calls for balanced treatment of artifacts and a unified approach This volume emphasizes questions of transcultural encounters and exchanges as circulations It presents a strategy that highlights the processes and connections among cultures and also responds to the dynamics at work in the current globalized art world The editors introduction provides an account of the historical background to this approach to global art history stresses the inseparable bond of theory and practice and suggests a reevaluation of materialist historicism as an underlying premise Individual contributions to the book provide an overview of current reflection and research on issues of circulation in relation to global art history and the globalization of art past and present They offer a variety of methods and approaches to the treatment of different periods regions and objects surveying both questions of historiography and methodology and presenting individual case studies An Afterword by James Elkins gives a critique of the present project The book thus deliberately leaves discussion open inviting future responses to the large questions it poses American Artists Engage the Built Environment, 1960-1979 Susannah Bieber,2023-07-31 This volume reframes the development of US American avant garde art of the long 1960s from minimal and pop art to land art conceptual art site specific practices and feminist art in the context of contemporary architectural discourses Susannah Bieber analyzes the work of seven major artists Donald Judd Robert Grosvenor Claes Oldenburg Robert Smithson Lawrence Weiner Gordon Matta Clark and Mary Miss who were closely associated with the formal aesthetic innovations of the period While these individual artists came to represent diverse movements Bieber argues that all of them were attracted to the field of architecture the work of architects engineers preservationists landscape designers and urban planners because they believed these practices more directly shaped the social and material spaces of everyday life This book s contribution to the field of art history is thus twofold First it shows that the avant garde of the long 1960s did not simply develop according to an internal logic of art but also as part of broader sociocultural discourses about buildings and cities Second it exemplifies a methodological synthesis between social art history and poststructural formalism that is foundational to understanding the role of art in the construction of a more just and egalitarian society The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history architecture urbanism and environmental humanism Conceptualism and Materiality Christian Berger,2019-07-08 Conceptualism and Materiality Matters of Art and Politics underscores the significance of materials and materiality within Conceptual art and conceptualism more broadly It challenges the notion of conceptualism as an idea centered anti materialist enterprise and highlights the political implications thereof The essays focus on the importance of material considerations for artists working during the 1960s and 1970s in different parts of the world In reconsidering conceptualism s neglected material aspects the authors reveal the rich range of artistic inquiries into theoretical and political notions of matter and material Their studies revise and diversify the account of this important chapter in the history of twentieth century art a reassessment that carries wider implications for the study of art and materiality in general Conceptual Art in the Netherlands and Belgium 1965-1975 Suzanna Heman,Jurrie Poot,Hripsime Visser,2002 A Show of Hands Ileana Parvu,2024-12-13 In contrast to the divide between conception and execution advocated by Anglo American artists in the second half of the 1960s this book reappraises conceptual art by examining it from the perspective of craft The emphasis on craft shifts the focus from the Western art system to its margins where creators were relegated to the status of mere artisans in the colonial context on the pretext that attaining that of artists was beyond their reach From this peripheral point of view the book shows that work carried out with artisanal means can lead to conceptual practice Moreover this shift in perspective provides a new understanding of several positions within conceptualism which ultimately appears as an ongoing reflection on the role of the hands making and craft Look inside The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter,2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Conceptual Art and the Politics of Publicity Alexander Alberro, 2003 An examination of the origins and legacy of the conceptual art movement

Installation Art and the Practices of Archivalism David Houston Jones, 2016-03-31 On the leading edge of trauma and archival studies this timely book engages with the recent growth in visual projects that respond to the archive focusing in particular on installation art It traces a line of argument from practitioners who explicitly depict the archive Samuel Beckett Christian Boltanski Art Language Walid Raad to those whose materials and practices are archival Mirosław Bałka Jean Luc Godard Silvia Kolbowski Boltanski Atom Egoyan Jones considers in particular the widespread nostalgia for archival media such as analogue photographs and film He analyses the innovative strategies by which such artefacts are incorporated examining five distinct types of archival practice the intermedial testimonial personal relational and monumentalist
