Recoveries True Stories By People Who Conquered Addictions And Compulsions:

Anthology of Monographs on Addiction Studies Kay Wachuku, 2002-12-17 Rick Biesada picks up where the mundane Clinton biographers left off or were too timid to delve into He pulls no punches in his scholarly review of his encounter with Hillary where he worked as a bouncer in a Chicago bar Back in the old days when we served alcohol to minors and bred red blooded American men not little pudgy nerds running around in fanny packs Angry White Male and the Horse He Rode In On was inspired in part by the Clinton Impeachment as a tribute to the House Managers The disgusting bias and contemptuous farce from our elected officials and their parasitic cohorts in the media showed that our nation would never be great again The components are no longer there We've lost our resolve President Clinton wasn't on trial our rule of law was on trial and these Jackasses disintegrated the defining moment of our rule of law Most citizens don't know about or care about our heritage now that we've evolved into a complacent society of victims Fortunately there are a few people still around to protect our freedom and sovereignty This non fiction book of political satire and factual history as witnessed by Mr Biesada an education you'll never learn in school is intended to restore hope and teach generations of Americans who don't quite understand our heritage to get some order about themselves and hold our elected officials accountable when they violate the public trust High Anxieties Janet Farrell Brodie, Marc Redfield, 2002-11-21 High Anxieties is a collection of essays exploring the historical and ideological notions of addiction from the Opium Wars to the current war on drugs to the internet Recoveries Lindsey Hall, 1987-01-01 Seven individuals recount how they overcame alcoholism anorexia nervosa bulimia cigarette smoking cocaine narcotics addiction and suicidal tendencies Peer Power Judith A. Tindall, 1989 As a result of many years as a professional counselor trainer and consultant the author has attempted to offer skills that through the years she has found important in developing peer helpers Intro Focus on Addictions Kay Marie Porterfield, 1992 Contains information and resources needed to understand and cope with various types of addiction What's Wrong with Addiction? Helen Keane, 2002 This is an impressive work carefully structured researched and written a refreshingly lucid account that is both intellectually stimulating and professionally helpful Janet McCalman Addicts are generally regarded with either pity or grave disapproval But is being addicted to something necessarily bad These attitudes are explicit both in contemporary medical literature and in popular self help texts We categorise addiction as unnatural diseased and self destructive We demonise pleasure and desire and view the addict as physically and morally damaged Helen Keane's thought provoking text examines these assumptions in a new light In asserting that the wrongness of addiction is not fixed or indeed obvious she presents a refreshing challenge to more conventional accounts of addiction She also investigates the notion that people can be addicted to eating love and sex just as they are to drugs and alcohol What's Wrong with Addiction shows that most of our ideas about addiction take certain ideals of health and normality for granted It exposes strains in our society's oppositions between health and disease between the natural and the artificial between order and disorder and between self and other

The Probability of Addiction David A. Peters,1997 Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1994 Eating Disorders Jennifer L. Strada,2001 Explains what eating disorders are the causes risks and effects involved as well as treatment and prevention Feminist Bookstore News ,1988
