administration Resources in Education ,1991-04 Religion and the Schools Eugene T. Connors,1988 This fastback examines the U S Supreme Court decisions and a few lower court decisions concerning religion and education rendered in the 1980s and for background purposes it also includes some decisions prior to the 1980s The first of four parts discusses cases pertaining to prayer and religious activities in school Included in the discussion are cases concerning moment of silence posting the Ten Commandments school clubs and the Equal Access Act religious holidays and holiday observances Christmas pageants and other seasonal observances and prayers during school functions The second part discusses cases involving aid to parochial schools Litigation involving shared time programs and Chapter I services is discussed along with tax deductions for education expenses The third part addresses religion in the curriculum reviewing cases on religious objections to compulsory school attendance creationism and evolution using the Bible in the school curriculum teachers rights to refuse to teach objectionable material and textbooks and secular humanism A list of cases is appended TE

Extraordinary Educators Charles A. Reavis,1988 Profiles are presented of six superior educators whose students achieved an excellence far beyond what might be expected of them The subjects were a speech and drama teacher a girls basketball coach a choral music teacher an art teacher and principals of an elementary and a secondary school The major finding of the study was that without exception these leaders gave a high number of correctives Any deviations even minor ones from their high standards were corrected quickly and not infrequently very sharply Other significant findings were 1 they were purposive demanding perfectionists 2 they had a sense of humor and tended toward self deprecation 3 they gave only a limited amount of praise 4 they stressed self discipline responsibility and always doing one s best 5 they attained a high amount of time on task and 6 they were very family oriented Comparisons are made between the characteristics of these educators and leaders in the business world Recommendations are made for teacher and administrator education JD

School Leadership Stuart Carl Smith,Philip K. Piele,1989 Recognizing the importance of good leadership to the achievement of educational excellence the second edition of this handbook synthesizes a large body of school leadership literature and explores the subject from three perspectives the person the structure and the skills Part I examines characteristics of today s educational leaders effective leadership styles and qualities administrator training hiring and induction methods and the scarcity of female and black school leaders Part II looks at the organizational supports underlying school leadership This section examines the balance of authority between the central office and the school site the team approach to management the decision making context and the components of school climate Part III highlights leadership abilities needed by today s school administrators Besides knowing how to manage the school s instructional program and staff administrators must be able to communicate in today s more open sharing organization build coalitions of community groups make meetings more productive and manage time stress and conflict more effectively Concerned about integrating theory with practice the book offers many practical suggestions for using the information presented Accompanying each
