Recuerdos Hardcover:

Recuerdos Mariano Guadalupe Vallejo, 2023-03-02 A generation after the U S conquest of California Mariano Guadalupe Vallejo set out to write the story of the land he knew so well a history to dispel the romantic vision quickly overtaking the state s recent past The five volume history he produced published here for the first time in English translation is the most complete account of California before the gold rush by someone who resided in California at the time Mariano Guadalupe Vallejo 1807 90 grew up in Spanish California became a leading military and political figure in Mexican California and participated in some of the founding events of U S California such as the Monterey Constitutional Convention and the first legislature With his project undertaken for historian and publisher Hubert Howe Bancroft Vallejo sought to correct misrepresentations of California s past which dismissed as insignificant the pre gold rush Spanish and Mexican periods conflated into one Mission era Instead Vallejo s history emphasized the role of the military in the Spanish colonization of California and argued that the missionaries after Jun pero Serra with their medieval ideas had actually retarded the development of California until secularization in the early 1830s Culture he contended was of intense interest to the Californio people as was the education of children His accounts of Indigenous peoples while often sympathetic were also characteristic of his time he and other California military leaders Vallejo maintained had successfully subdued hostile Indians and established mutually beneficial relationships with others Out of keeping with Bancroft s American triumphalism Vallejo s monumental project was consigned to the archives With their deft translation and commentary Rose Marie Beebe and Robert M Senkewicz authors of a companion volume on Vallejo s work have brought to light a remarkable perspective often firsthand on important events in early California history Their efforts restore a critical chapter to the story of California and the American West

New Latina Narrative Ellen Marie McCracken, 1999-02 During the last two decades of the twentieth century U S Latina writers have made a profound impact on American letters with fiction in both mainstream and regional venues Following on the heels of this vibrant and growing body of work New Latina Narrative offers the first in depth synthesis and literary analysis of this transethnic genre Focusing on the dynamic writing published in the 1980s and 1990s by Mexican American Puerto Rican Cuban American and Dominican American women New Latina Narrative illustrates how these writers have redefined the concepts of multiculturalism and diversity in American society As participants in both mainstream and grassroots forms of multiculturalism these new Latina narrativists have created a feminine space within postmodern ethnicity disrupting the idealistic veneer of diversity with which publishers often market this fiction In this groundbreaking study author Ellen McCracken opens the conventional boundaries of Latino a literary criticism incorporating elements of cultural studies theory and contemporary feminism Emphasizing the diversity within new Latina narrative McCracken discusses the works of more than two dozen writers including Julia Alvarez Denise Ch vez Sandra Cisneros Cristina Garcia Graciela Lim n Demetria Mart nez Pat Mora Cherr e Moraga Mary Helen Ponce and Helena Mar a Viramontes She stresses such themes as the resignification of master narrative the autobiographical self and collective identity popular religiosity subculture and transgression and narrative harmony and dissonance New Latina Narrative provides readers an enriched basis for reconceiving the overall Latino a literary field and its relation to other contemporary literary and cultural trends McCracken's original approach extends the Latina literary canon both the works to be studied and the issues to be examined resulting in a valuable work for all readers of women's studies contemporary American literature ethnic studies communications and sociology

Many Peoples, One Land Alethea K. Helbig, Agnes Regan Perkins, 2000-10-30 Celebrating the wealth of quality multicultural literature recently published for children and young adults this valuable resource examines the fiction oral tradition and poetry from four major ethnic groups in the United States Each of these genres is considered in turn for the literature dealing with African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and Native American Indians Taking up where their earlier volume This Land is Our Land left off Helbig and Perkins have teamed up once again to identify and expertly evaluate more than 500 multicultural books published from 1994 through 1999 Both considered authorities in the field of children's literature the two of them personally selected read and evaluated all the books included here Their insightful annotations help readers carefully consider both literary standards such as plot development characterization and style as well as cultural values as they are represented in these cited works Each entry also indicates the suggested age and grade level appropriateness of the work With the proliferation and ever increasing popularity of multicultural literature for children and young adults this sensitively written volume will serve as an invaluable collection development tool Teachers as well as librarians will find the comprehensiveness and organization of this bibliography helpful as a guide in selecting appropriate materials for classroom use Even students will find this book easy to use with its five indexes identifying works by title writer illustrator grade level and subject Public libraries and school media centers will find much use for Many Peoples One Land

Voces de los fieles (hard cover), Telling Border Life Stories Donna M Kabalen de Bichara, 2013-05-21 Voices from the borderlands push against boundaries in more ways than one as Donna M Kabalen de Bichara ably demonstrates in this investigation into the twentieth century autobiographical writing of four women of Mexican origin who lived in the American Southwest Until recently little attention has been paid to the writing of the women included in this study As Kabalen de Bichara notes it is precisely such historical exclusion of texts written by Mexican American women that gives particular significance to the reexamination of the five autobiographical works that provide the focus for this in depth study Early Life and Education and Dew on the Thorn by Jovita Gonz lez 1904 83 deal with life experiences in Texas and were likely written between 1926 and the 1940s both texts were published in 1997 Romance of a Little Village Girl first published in 1955 focuses on life in New Mexico and was written by Cleofas Jaramillo 1878 1956 when the author was in her seventies A Beautiful Cruel Country by Eva Antonio Wilbur Cruce 1904 98 introduces the reader to history and a way of life that developed in the cultural space of Arizona Created over a ten year period this text was published in 1987 just eleven years before the author's death Hoyt Street by Mary Helen Ponce b 1938 began as a research paper during the period of the autobiographer's undergraduate studies 1974-80 and was published in its present form in 1993. These border autobiographies can be understood as attempts on the part of the Mexican American female autobiographers to put themselves into the text and thus write their experiences into existence.
