Mousoutzanis, 2014-05-27 Fin de Si cle Fictions 1890s 1990s focuses on fin de si cle British and postmodern American fictions of apocalypse and investigates the ways in which these narratives demonstrate shifts in the relations among modern discourses of power and knowledge The Spectralities Reader Maria del Pilar Blanco, Esther Peeren, 2013-08-29 The Spectralities Reader is the first volume to collect the rich scholarship produced in the wake of the spectral turn of the early 1990s which saw ghosts and haunting conjured as compelling analytical and methodological tools across the humanities and social sciences Surveying the past twenty years from an interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspective the Reader displays the wide range of concerns spectrality in its diverse elaborations has been called upon to elucidate The disjunctions produced by globalization the ungraspable quality of modern media the convolutions of subject formation in terms of gender race and sexuality the elusiveness of spaces and places and the lingering presences and absences of memory and history have all been reconceived by way of the spectral A primer for the wide readership engaged with cultural interpretations of ghosts and haunting that go beyond the confines of the fictional and supernatural The Spectralities Reader includes twenty five groundbreaking texts by prominent contemporary thinkers from Jacques Derrida and Gayatri Spivak to Avery Gordon and Arjun Appadurai as well as a general introduction and six section introductions by the editors Balzac's Shorter Fictions Tim Farrant, 2002-02-14 Balzac s reputation is as a novelist But short stories make up over half La Com die humaine besides scores of other tales and articles Short forms appear early in Balzac s output and shape his work throughout his career Balzac s Shorter Fictions looks at the whole of this corpus at the nature of short fiction and at how Balzac s novels developed from his stories at the links between literary genesis and genre It explores the roles of short fiction in Balzac s creation its part in producing effects of virtuality and perspective and reflects ultimately on the relationship between brevity and length in La Com die humaine This the first complete English language study of Balzac s work for over forty years synthesizes recent research on Balzac s practice within the context of modern thought on the author It is an indispensable book for students and scholars of Balzac and for all those interested in prose fiction Federman's Fictions Jeffrey R. The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels Eva-Maria Windberger,2023-07-17 The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell s Novels combines the investigation of David Mitchell s novels with the introduction of a new critical concept to literary studies empowerment Aiming to situate and establish empowerment firmly within the context of literary studies it offers the first framework and definition for reading fictional texts with the lens of empowerment and applies it in the analysis of discourse the fictional characters and the role of the reader in Mitchell's novels Drawing on narratological analysis cognitive approaches to literature and reader response theory it features close readings of Cloud Atlas 2004 Black Swan Green 2006 and The Thousand Autumns of Jacob de Zoet 2010 and dissects the author's strategies poetics and agenda of empowering fiction This book argues for an inherent indissoluble connection between empowerment and the telling of stories and demonstrates how literary studies can benefit from a serious engagement with empowerment and how such an engagement can stimulate new responses to fiction and put literary studies in conversation with other disciplines Time in Fiction Craig Bourne, Emily Caddick Bourne, 2016 What can we learn about the world from engaging with fictional time series stories involving time travellers recurring and rewinding time and foreknowledge of the future Craig Bourne and Emily Caddick Bourne show how we can use the complexities of fictional time to get to the core of the relation between truth in fiction and possibility You Haven't Changed a Bit Astrid Blodgett, 2013-04-17 A collection of thirteen short stories featuring characters in realistic situations The Fictions of Dreams Otto M. Rheinschmiedt, 2018-03-29 This book examines some of the oldest preserved texts on dreams such as Artemidorus Oneirocritica Sigmund Freud's favourite ancient dream theorist and dream books by Aristotle the grandfather of modern dream theory The Twentieth-Century American Fiction Handbook Christopher MacGowan, 2010-12-21 THE TWENTIETH CENTURY AMERICAN FICTION Accessibly structured with entries on important historical contexts central issues key texts and the major writers this Handbook provides an engaging overview of twentieth century American fiction Featured writers range from Henry James and Theodore Dreiser to contemporary figures such as Joyce Carol Oates Thomas Pynchon and Sherman Alexie and analyses of key works include The Great Gatsby Lolita The Color Purple and The Joy Luck Club among others Relevant contexts for these works such as the impact of Hollywood the expatriate scene in the 1920s and the political unrest of the 1960s are also explored and their importance discussed This is a stimulating overview of twentieth century American fiction offering invaluable guidance and essential information for students and general readers All Stories Are True Tracie Church Guzzio, 2011-05-17 In All Stories Are True Tracie Church Guzzio provides the first full length study of John Edgar Wideman's entire oeuvre to date Specifically Guzzio examines the ways in which Wideman b 1941 engages with three crucial themes history myth and trauma throughout his career showing how they intertwine Guzzio argues that for four decades the influential African American writer has endeavored to create a version of the African American experience that runs counter to mainstream interpretations using history and myth to confront and then heal the trauma caused by slavery and racism Wideman's work intentionally blurs boundaries between fiction and autobiography myth and history particularly as that history relates to African American experience in his hometown of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania The fusion of fiction national history and Wideman's personal life is characteristic of his style which due to its complexity and smudging of genre distinctions has presented analytic difficulties for literary scholars Despite winning the PEN Faulkner award twice for Sent for You Yesterday 1984 and Philadelphia Fire 1990 Wideman remains under studied Of particular value is Guzzio s analysis of the many ways in which Wideman alludes to his previous works This intertextuality allows Wideman to engage his books in direct intentional dialogue with each other through repeated characters images folktales and songs In Wideman s challenging of a monolithic view of history and presenting alternative perspectives to it and his allowing past present and future time to remain fluid in the narratives Guzzio finds an author firm in his notion that all stories and all perspectives have merit
