Selected Writings and Speeches. Comp. and Ed. by A. Kates Shulman* Emma Goldman, A. Kates Shulman, 1972 The ^AClaims of Experience Nolan Bennett, 2019-08-21 Autobiography from Frederick Douglass's Narrative of the Life to J. D. Vance's Hillbilly Elegy has long been a popular genre that both authors and readers have utilized to understand particular political moments. As this book argues such narratives have also contributed to the development of American political thought despite the fact that the field has not taken autobiography seriously as political theory in its own right. This book considers the political contexts in which Benjamin Franklin Frederick Douglass Henry Adams Emma Goldman and Whittaker Chambers wrote their autobiographies to better understand not only the political problems to which autobiographical works can be a solution but the broader appeal of such claims of experience to the everyday life of democratic politics. Reframing the Reclaiming of Urban Space Megan E. Heim

LaFrombois, 2017-11-30 In Reframing the Reclaiming of Urban Space: A Feminist Exploration into Do It Yourself Urbanism in Chicago Megan E. Heim LaFrombois explores the concept of do it yourself DIY urbanism from an intersectional feminist analytical framework. Interventions based on DIY urbanism are small scale and place specific and focus on urban spaces which can be reclaimed and repurposed often outside of formal urban planning institutions. Heim LaFrombois examines the discourses and processes surrounding the institutionalized and embedded nature of DIY urbanism. She weaves together sites and sources to reveal the ways in which DIY urbanists make sense of their participation and experiences with DIY urbanism and with the broader political social and economic contexts and spaces in which these activities take place Her research findings contribute to and build on current research that illustrates the importance of gender race class and sexuality to cities local politics urban planning initiatives and the development of communities Red Emma Speaks Emma Goldman,1972 The controversial writings of Emma Goldman early 20th century anarchist and feminist Rethinking Political Thinkers Manjeet Ramgotra,Simon Choat,2023 The first textbook to challenge and expand the canon of political thinkers Rethinking Political Thinkers presents political thought in a new light invites debate and brings diverse perspectives to the fore giving students the tools to think about political concepts theories and arguments critically and analytically
