Red Sorrow:

Red Sorrow Nanchu,2012-03-08 At the outbreak of the Cultural Revolution 13 year old Nanchu watched Red Guards destroy her home and torture her parents whom they jailed She was left to fend for herself and her younger brother When she grew older she herself became a Red Guard and was sent to the largest work camp in China There she faced primitive conditions sexual harassment and the pressure to conform Eventually she was admitted to Madam Mao s university where politics were more important than learning Her testimony is essential reading for anyone interested in China or human rights

Asian American Fiction, History and Life Writing Helena Grice,2012-11-12 The last ten years have witnessed an enormous growth in American interest in Asia and Asian American history In particular a set of key Asian historical moments have recently become the subject of intense American cultural scrutiny namely China s Cultural Revolution and its aftermath the Korean American war and its legacy the era of Japanese geisha culture and its subsequent decline and China s one child policy and the rise of transracial international adoption in its wake Grice examines and accounts for this cultural and literary preoccupation exploring the corresponding historical political situations that have both circumscribed and enabled greater cultural and political contact between Asia and America

The Red Door Shawn C. Harris,2022-09-05 The story starts at a Jewish funeral fist after fist fills with cool damp earth It travels to Israel at ben gurion airport here she comes hauling her baggage rendered clumsy by her burden beneath that smooth brown skin that halo of thick coarse hair the plantation and the shtetl live in blood and memory her passport names her tirzah persephone horowitz after an aunt on her dad s side who died so young in the camps and her mother s favorite greek myth but to call her tirzah is too much like uncovering her nakedness like speaking aloud the holy name and the holy city of Tzfat i am a city of song plucked strings of a lyre loud brassy klezmer throbbing techno beats shoes clomp clomping on cobblestone tires screeching on the asphalt river winding round my peak It features monsters terry loves monsters loved them since her first pimples and pubes sneaking dracula under the covers wondering what it would be like to feel a vampire s fangs on her neck to taste human blood in her mouth to transform into wolf or bat or mist but dracula always dies staked and beheaded by good christian men because magic and mystery must not survive And it ends No That would be telling Stories of Red Hanrahan W. B. Yeats,2016-01-11 RED HANRAHAN Hanrahan the hedge schoolmaster a tall strong red haired young man came into the barn where some of the men of the village were sitting on Samhain Eve It had been a dwelling house and when the man that owned it had built a better one he had put the two rooms together and kept it for a place to store one thing or another There was a fire on the old hearth and there were dip candles stuck in bottles and there was a black quart bottle upon some boards that had been put across two barrels to make a table Most of the men were sitting beside the fire and one of them was singing a long wandering song about a Munster man and a Connaught man that were quarrelling about their two provinces Hanrahan went to the man of the house and said I got your message but when he had said that he stopped for an old mountainy man that had a shirt and trousers of unbleached flannel and that was sitting by himself near the door was looking at him and moving an old pack of cards about in his hands and muttering Don t mind him said the man of the house he is only some stranger came in awhile ago and we bade him welcome it being Samhain night but I think he is not in his right wits Listen to him now and you will hear what he is saying

Whisk of the Red Broom: Stalin & Ukraine, 1928-1933 M. Andrew Holowchak, 2024-07-16

Once Joseph Stalin took the lead of the Soviet Bolsheviks after the death of Vladimir Lenin he quickly turned away from Lenin s New Economic Policy with its many concessions to capitalism to a policy of one country socialism driven by his first Five Year Plan 1928 and a plan that other Bolsheviks like Lenin and Trotsky thought impossible That shift radical forced Stalin to urbanize the USSR s vast rural areas that is to impose a factory like model on the Soviet countryside to maximize its efficiency That required collectivizing the numerous Soviet farms making large farms of the numerous small farms Ukraine was to be the model republic due to its vastness and black fertile lands Not only were the republics to be collectivized they were also to be Russified for the sake of model efficiency and centralization of control And so while Stalin early in his political life preached respect for the cultural diversity of its many republics and the right of secession of any republic the need to collectivize the Soviet farms for the sake of one country socialism demanded compliance Ukrainian peasant farmers were non compliant for they readily saw that the State was asking them for everything and giving back nothing but the pledge of efficient farms to benefit the State and non compliance forced Stalin s authoritarian hand He imposed laws that brutally punished non compliant peasants called kulaks The plan was dekulakization The intransigents were dispossessed of their property alienated from other villagers exiled and exterminated The result in Ukraine was the gross inefficiency of both collective and individual farms That led to intolerance of Ukrainian culture and theft of Ukrainian grain and even all other findable foodstuffs to punish Ukrainians The end was a great famine in 1932 and 1933 in which some four million Ukrainians died Did Stalin believe that he could urbanize the Soviet countryside Did Stalin think that socialism could take root in the backwater Soviet Union without the aid of Western succor Did Stalin hate Ukrainians because many pressed for a cultural identity separate from that of Russia Had Stalin s plan of dekulakization from the beginning been a policy of political genocide Those are some of the many questions I aim to answer in this book I focus much on Stalin s writings in the efforts to ascertain his mindset as a dictator

The Red Brush Wilt L. Idema, Beata Grant, 2020-03-23

One of the most exciting recent developments in the study of Chinese literature has been the rediscovery of an extremely rich and diverse tradition of women s writing of the imperial period 221 B C E 1911 C E Many of these writings are of considerable literary quality Others provide us with moving insights into the lives and feelings of a surprisingly diverse group of women living in Confucian China a society that perhaps more than any other is known for its patriarchal tradition Because of the burgeoning interest in the study of both premodern and modern women in China several scholarly books articles and even anthologies of women's poetry have been published in the last two decades This anthology differs from previous works by offering a glimpse of women's writings not only in poetry but in other genres as well including essays and letters drama religious writing and narrative fiction The authors have presented the selections within their respective biographical and historical contexts This comprehensive approach helps to clarify traditional Chinese ideas on the nature and function of literature as well as on the role of the woman writer
