Translated from the French by C. Martel* Michel Eugène CHEVREUL, 1854 Not a Choice, Not a Job JANICE G. RAYMOND, 2013-07-15 A generation ago most people did not know how ubiquitous and grave human trafficking was Now many people agree that the 35 7 billion business is an appalling violation of human rights But when confronted with prostitution many people experience an odd disconnect because prostitution is shrouded in myths among them the claims that prostitution is inevitable and prostitution is a job or service like any other In Not a Choice Not a

Job Janice Raymond challenges both the myths and their perpetrators Raymond demonstrates that prostitution is not sex but sexual exploitation and that legalizing and decriminalizing the system of prostitution as opposed to the prostituted women promotes sex trafficking expands the sex industry and invites organized crime Specifically Raymond exposes how legalized prostitution in the Netherlands Germany Australia and Nevada worsens crime and endangers women In contrast she reveals when governments work to prevent the demand for prostitution by prosecuting pimps brothels and prostitution users as in Norway Sweden and Iceland trafficking does not increase women are better protected and fewer men buy sex Raymond expands the boundaries of scholarship in women s studies making this book indispensable to human rights advocates around the world

The Coordinated Management of a Culturally Diffused Identity Jeffrey J. Leinaweaver, 2011-07 Internationally adopted persons confront multiple challenges in constructing their identities This study of the narrative burden of self looks at and interprets the dynamic process in which internationally adopted people develop coordinate and manage their sense of self identity and cultural racial personhood Drawing on the theory of the Coordinated Management of Meaning CMM the study focuses on their use of orphaning and adoption stories to most skillfully position and tell one s origin story in concert with one s internal sense of self and the pressures and forces found in interpersonal and intercultural dialogue The research reveals how internationally adopted people develop and demonstrate varying levels of game mastery in managing societal scripts and oppressive frames of stigma Through this game mastery the research brings to view how the participants have reflexively learned to claim ownership of their stories and develop a sense of agency while fashioning self empowering narratives out of the resources of their personal root journeys to better manage frame and coordinate the meaning of their stories across cultural and interpersonal boundaries

A Social Archaeology of Roman and Late Antique Egypt Ellen Swift, Jo Stoner, April Pudsey, 2022 Artefact evidence has the unique power to illuminate many aspects of life that are rarely explored in written sources This book presents the first in depth study that uses everyday artefacts as its principal source of evidence to transform our understanding of the society and culture of Roman and Late Antique Egypt

Gender, Ethnicity and Place Linda Peake, D. Alissa Trotz, 2002-09-11 This book is concerned with the nature of the relationship between gender ethnicity and poverty in the context of the external and internal dynamics of households in Guyana Using detailed data collected from male and female respondents in three separate locations two urban and one rural and across two major ethnic groups Afro Guyanese and Indo Guyanese the authors discuss the links between gender and race exploring development issues from a feminist perspective

The Protevangelium of James George T. Zervos, 2019-08-22 George T Zervos presents the first in a two volume critical investigation of one of the earliest and most important of the New Testament Apocrypha the Protevangelium of James also known as the Infancy Gospel of James Zervos challenges the prevailing view that the ProtJas is a 2nd century unitary document finding it instead to be the product of an ongoing redactional process in which a 1st century CE heretical text was progressively conformed to the orthodox Christian doctrine of the time Zervos tells the story of how an early apocryphal gospel provided the developing church with doctrinal material which was incorporated into both the theology and the ecclesiastical liturgical cycle of the medieval Church thus becoming a significant part of the standard catechism for generations of Christians In this first volume Zervos provides a critical introduction to the text and discusses ProtJas publication history scholarly investigation compositional problems and evidence of redaction as well as a in depth analysis of the narrative For the first time the readings of the vast majority of the known Greek manuscripts appear together with a transcription of the original text of the complete copy of the ProtJas found in Papyrus Bodmer V

The Imprint of Another Life Margaret Homans,2013-07-18 How adoption and its literary representations shed new light on notions of value origins and identity

Generative Leadership Christine Joy Edwards-Groves,Karin Rönnerman,2021-02-12 This book is about the generative nature of leading practices when teachers as learners participate in long term action research projects for the purpose of professional development This book also shows how practices of professional learning and practices of leading can be understood as related and developed in ecologies of practices the authors show how these are explicitly connected These findings direct readers to the connectivity between professional learning and leading practices that over time after participating in long term action research programs emerged as significant yet unexpected outcomes

Diasporic (dis)locations Brinda J. Mehta,2004 Indo Caribbean women writers are virtually invisible in the literary landscape because of cultural and social inhibitions and literary chauvinism Until recently the richness and particularities of the experiences of these writers in the field of literature and literary studies were compromised by stereotypical representations of the Indo Caribbean women that were narrated from a purely masculine or an Afrocentric point of view This book fills an important gap in an important but underestimated emergent field The book explores how cultural traditions and female modes of opposition to patriarchal control were transplanted from India and rearticulated in the Indo Caribbean diaspora to determine whether the idea of cultural continuity is in fact a postcolonial reality or a fictionalized myth kala pani to Trinidad and Guyana provided courage determination self reliance and sexual independence to their literary granddaughters who in turn used the kala pani as the necessary language and frame of reference to position Indo Caribbean female subjectivity with equating writing as a public declaration of one's identity and right to claim creative agency The book is of critical interest to those interested in twentieth century literary studies Caribbean studies gender studies ethnic studies and cultural studies
