Red Passion And Patience In The Desert:

Red Terry Tempest Williams, 2002-10-08 In this potent collage of stories essays and testimony Williams makes a stirring case for the preservation of America's Redrock Wilderness in the canyon country of southern Utah As passionate as she is persuasive Williams the beloved author of Refuge is one of the country's most eloquent and imaginative writers The desert is her blood Here she writes lyrically about the desert's power and vulnerability describing wonders that range from an ancient Puebloan sash of macaw feathers found in Canyonlands National Park to the desert tortoise an animal that can teach us the slow art of revolutionary patience as it extends our notion of kinship with all life She examines the civil war being waged in the West today over public and private uses of land an issue that divides even her own family With grace humor and compassionate intelligence Williams reminds us that the preservation of wildness is not simply a political process but a spiritual one

Environmental Awareness and the Design of Literature François

Specq,2016-10-05 Environmental Awareness and the Design of Literature offers analyses of the diverse ways in which literature helps us escape the rigid frames of commonly assumed worldviews and modes of seeing Literary works are endowed with a capacity not only to reflect or to mediate but to resist our environment and thus to affect and transform our relation to the physical world Each essay points to the way literature shapes the human perception of environment as intellectual adventures and forays that draw upon a number of historical aesthetic philosophical and phenomenological stances

The North American West in the Twenty-First Century Brenden W. Rensink,2022-11 In 1893 Frederick Jackson Turner famously argued that the generational process of meeting and conquering the supposedly uncivilized western frontier is what forged American identity In the late twentieth century new western historians dissected the mythologized western histories that Turner and others had long used to embody American triumph and progress While Turner s frontier is no more the West continues to present America with challenging processes to wrestle navigate and overcome The North American West in the Twenty First Century edited by Brenden W Rensink takes stories of the late twentieth century modern West and carefully pulls them toward the present explicitly tracing continuity with or unexpected divergence from trajectories established in the 1980s and 1990s Considering a broad range of topics including environment Indigenous peoples geography migration and politics these essays straddle multiple modern frontiers not least of which is the temporal frontier between our unsettled past and uncertain future These forays into the twenty first century West will inspire more scholars to pull histories to the present and by doing so reinsert scholarly findings into contemporary public awareness

Conflicted American Landscapes
David E. Nye, 2021-04-27 How conflicting ideas of nature threaten to fracture America s identity Amber waves of grain purple mountain majesties American invest much of their national identity in sites of natural beauty And yet American lands today are torn by conflicts over science religion identity and politics Creationists believe that the Biblical flood carved landscapes less than 10 000 years ago environmentalists protest pipelines Western states argue that the federal government s land policies throttle free enterprise Native Americans demand protection for sacred sites In this book David Nye looks at Americans irreconcilably conflicting ideas about nature A landscape is conflicted when different groups have different uses for the same location for example when some want to open mining sites that others want to preserve or when suburban development impinges on agriculture Some landscapes are so degraded from careless use that they become toxic anti landscapes Nye traces these conflicts to clashing conceptions of nature ranging from pastoral to Native American to military industrial that cannot be averaged into a compromise Nye argues that today s environmental crisis is rooted in these conflicting ideas about land Depending on your politics global warming is either an inconvenient truth or fake news America s contradictory conceptions of nature are at the heart of a broken national consensus
