

The image is a composite of two photographs. The top half shows a tall, dark industrial smokestack on the right side, emitting a thick plume of white smoke that drifts towards the left. In the background, there are hazy, blue-toned mountains under a grey sky. The bottom half shows a large industrial facility with several buildings. On the left is a long, low building with a grey roof and many windows. To its right is a taller, multi-story red brick building with several windows. Another smokestack is visible behind the red brick building, also emitting smoke. The foreground is filled with tall, dry grass. A dark horizontal band across the middle of the image contains white and yellow text.
