Russian and American Poetry of Experiment Vladimir Feshchenko, 2023-07-17 An experiment with language Is it an object cultivated in poetic laboratories where entry is locked for mere mortals And what do language scholars think about it Specialists in language and literature studies interested in linguistic innovation and experimental poetry will find answers to these questions in Vladimir Feshchenko's book The Study investigates various strategies of radical linguistic creativity in Russian and American experimental writing of the 20th century and explores cases of contemporary language oriented and trans language poetry. It is a comparative examination of two national avant garde cultures but also a juxtaposition of the relationships that Russian and American avant garde poetics had with linguistic ideas of their times. The monograph may serve as a wonderful introduction to the entire field of linguistic poetics of the avant garde.

Experiments in

Life-Writing Lucia Boldrini, Julia Novak, 2017-10-24 This volume examines innovative intersections of life writing and experimental fiction in the 20th and 21st centuries bringing together scholars and practicing biographers from several disciplines. Modern Languages English and Comparative Literature Creative Writing It covers a broad range of biographical autobiographical and hybrid practices in a variety of national literatures among them many recent works texts that test the ground between fact and fiction that are marked by impressionist self reflexive and intermedial methods by their recourse to myth folklore poetry or drama as they tell a historical character's story. Between them the essays shed light on the broad range of auto biographical experimentation in modern Europe and will appeal to readers with an interest in the history and politics of form in life writing in the ways in which departures from traditional generic paradigms are intricately linked with specific views of subjectivity with questions of personal communal and national identity. The Comparative Study of Traditional Asian Literatures Vladimir Braginsky, 2013-10-11 This book represents the first ever published introduction to the comparative study of traditional Asian literatures embracing three vast literary zones Arab Islamic Indo South East Asian and Sino Far Eastern. The aim of the book is to outline the main properties of Asian literatures in the period of reflective traditionalism the early centuries CE to the first half of the 19th century when the creation of a vast body of aesthetically significant works was coupled with the emergence of literary self awareness when the nature of the creative process the poetics and functions of the literary works and the ways of their influence on the reader were thoroughly comprehended and committed to writing for the first time. The book is intended for specialists in Asian literatures comparative literature and literary theory and for students of these topics.

The Routledge Companion to Experimental Literature Joe Bray, Alison Gibbons, Brian McHale, 2012-07-26 What is experimental literature? How has experimentation affected the course of literary history and how is it shaping literary expression today? Literary experiment has always been diverse and challenging but never more so than in our age of digital media and social networking when the very category of the literary is coming under intense pressure. How will literature reconfigure itself in the future? The Routledge Companion to Experimental Literature maps this expansive and multifaceted field with essays on the history of literary experiment from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present the impact of new media on literature including multimodal literature digital fiction and code poetry the development of experimental
