Reflection Worldwide Library:

Reflections on the Global Civilization Majid Tehranian, Daisaku Ikeda, 2015-12-21 Globalization has brought different civilizations and peoples into new and closer contact. But this novel intimacy has not always led to greater understanding. There is an urgent need to work towards a global civilization based on principles of peace, mutual respect and tolerance. It is precisely that goal which the participants attempt in this classic dialogue. Inspired by the encounters between Buddhism and Islam as they exchanged ideas and goods along the Silk Road, it brings together a Sufi Muslim from Iran and one of the world's most influential lay Buddhist leaders to explore the vibrant areas of common ground between the Islamic and Buddhist traditions. Coloured by Sufi philosophy and by Buddhist thought and practice and drawing on a diverse selection of thinkers including Rumi and Hafez, Rabindranath Tagore, Jürgen Habermas and Antonio Gramsci, Reflections on the Global Civilization offers a profound meditation on conflict, loss and injustice as well as the vitality of interfaith discussion. It shows that Islam and Buddhism have much to offer not only to each other but also to the world as a whole. Transactions and proceedings of the ... International Library Conference International Library Conference, 1898 IFLA Library Building Guidelines: Developments & Reflections Karen Latimer, Hellen Niegaard, 2008-11-03 The information society and the information age are changing library services as well as library premises. This raises questions about what needs to be considered when planning and designing new library buildings in order to achieve attractive, efficient and future-oriented new library spaces. This new publication provides information and guidelines for the building planning process, whether you are planning a new public or academic library building. It reflects on fundamental issues, on new development trends and on the planning process. The library building process is seen from both the library manager's perspective as well as that of the architect and designer. Issues covered include what to consider when investigating the need for space, library design from a marketing viewpoint, green management and sustainability relating to library buildings and a layman's guide to reading plans. This publication and the IFLA guidelines provided are not seen as a traditional set of recommendations to be rigidly adhered to, since this would be unrealistic in a fast-changing and global context. Rather, library managers and architects should read them in order to inform their thinking on key issues and establish a planning programme. They must then relate them to their own countries and circumstances by making the relevant local adjustments. Reflections Lorie Bennett, The contextually relevant and locally meaningful Reflections Donald J. Young, 2014-05-09 Donald Young's poems are tight and loose at the same time; the reader can move within them and the reader will feel strongly the concern, the emotion, the flow that carries the words along. There is color, music, and a wonderful reliance on imagery that makes the poems a joy to read and reread. But what gives the poems their energy and depth is the feeling of necessity that underlies each poem; there is an idea or passion or both which strongly compels its utterance. The poems are journeys toward revelation or satori, sudden illumination. In many cases the poems push us beyond what we could ever anticipate. Herein lies the pleasure. We leave Donald Young's poems enlightened, deepened, and thankful for the keen eye and compassionate heart Handbook of Research on Interdisciplinary Reflections of Contemporary Experiential Marketing Practices Akel, Gökhan, 2022-06-24 Technology has brought many innovations and changes in experiential design and experiential products and services. The digital transformations brought about by technology have led to problem solving, creative functioning, and unique improvements along with experiences. Human digital experience interaction prevails in many areas of modern society, and in order to evaluate this interaction, a more balanced understanding of digital and experience processes is required. The Handbook of Research on Interdisciplinary Reflections of Contemporary Experiential Marketing Practices discusses innovative research on experiential marketing and evaluates the interdisciplinary reflections of practices from different perspectives. The book also explores how the concept of experience is developed, managed, and marketed according to current consumer needs and motivations. Covering critical topics such as experience economy and tourism experience management, this reference work is ideal for managers, marketers, hospitality professionals, academicians, practitioners, scholars, researchers, instructors, and students Reflections Leticia Gossdenovich Feldman Ed.D, Ph.D, 2009-12-09 Colonization and Imperialism in Libraries Mark-Shane Scale, 2021-02-11 Former university lecturer and Caribbean immigrant Mark Shane Scale offers an unsettling look at how the centuries-old legacy of colonialism and imperialism continues to haunt one of the most seemingly innocuous and unexpected of spaces: the world's modern libraries. Library and information sciences emerged from a noble commitment to making knowledge more easily accessible to the world. Yet empowering and global library institutions with the ability to facilitate intercultural communication, social cohesion, and conflict resolution have simultaneously been weaponized as instruments of ideological and cultural propaganda throughout the ages. A meticulous analysis of historical and current library systems and practices crescendos to a visionary proposal for paving the way ahead: a holistic, integrated approach to finally decolonize global libraries in a way that builds an ever-evolving archive of human knowledge and human experience that is truly inclusive of all voices: indigenous, colonized, formerly colonized, and immigrant voices alike. At the height of the information age, this book is a foundational must-read for all librarians, library school students, and library users around the world: a contemporary perspective that boldly lays out a timely and much-needed reform to an institution that might otherwise risk its relevance to the modern global landscape Reflections from My Heart Edythe
