Langford, 2007-06-23 For about the last fifteen years of his life Thomas A Langford pondered how grace is central to Christian theology This book records his reflections and provides numerous gems of mature Christian insight From beginning to end the book is christologically focused Grace is not something that God gives us rather it is the way God gives us himself Grace is a person God present to human beings Grace is not a gift but rather a giver Grace is Jesus Christ The central contribution of this work is its personalization of grace its sharp focus on God present in Jesus Christ Because its focus on grace gives the reader such a clear and thematically developed entry point this work is a great introduction to theology and the life of the church the kind that pastors and parishioners would certainly benefit from confronting

Reflections on the Bible Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2004 What caused Dietrich Bonhoeffer a well educated and philosophical pastor from Berlin to risk his reputation his freedom and finally his life to stand with others against the brutality of the Nazis In this special collection of his writings Bonhoeffer reveals his thoughts and struggles as he reflects on the Bible This unique collection includes excerpts from Bonhoeffer s letters meditations expositions sermons lectures and seminar papers with topics stretching from his thematic study of the historical critical method to his study of selected portions of Psalms 119 which he regarded as the crown of theological life Bonhoeffer s statements about the Bible and his struggle with those statements remain remarkably relevant today for individuals and churches for Christians and non Christians He still challenges us to decide whether we are willing to trust the word of the Bible or not Back of the book

The Penitent State Paul Muldoon, 2023 This book asks a deceptively simple question what are states actually doing when they do penance for past injustices Why are these penitential gestures especially the gesture of apology becoming so ubiquitous and what implications do they carry for the way power is exercised Drawing on the work of Schmitt Foucault and Agamben the book argues that there is more at stake in sovereign acts of repentance and redress than either the recognition of the victims or the legitimacy of the state Driven it suggests by an interest in healing such acts testify to a new biopolitical raison d'état in which the management of trauma emerges as a critical expression of attempts to regulate the life of the population The Penitent State seeks to show that the key issue created by the age of apology is not whether sovereign acts of repentance and redress are sincere or insincere but whether the political measures licensed in the name of healing deserve to be regarded as either restorative or just

Daily Reflections on Divine Mercy John Paul Thomas, 2016-03-17 Daily Reflections on Divine Mercy was written to provide an awakening to the abundant Mercy of God It offers daily reflections and prayers to help deepen the day to day faith life of every Catholic so that you can understand the abundance of Mercy poured forth from the Heart of our Savior as it is revealed in the writings of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska Divine Mercy in My Soul Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska is soon to become a classic spiritual book that everyone is encouraged to read in their lifetime However many find this invitation intimidating not just because of the width of her book but because of the depth of its message on The Divine Mercy in each of Saint Faustina s notebook entries This book Daily Reflections on Divine Mercy was written with the hope of guiding you through Saint Faustina s Diary and her six notebooks of reflections It can be used on its own to help you pause and reflect on the beauty of Jesus messages to her or as a companion book as you simultaneously read Saint Faustina s Diary Daily Reflections on Divine Mercy offers 365 daily teachings reflections and prayers based upon the pages of Saint Faustina s Diary The structured way to use this daily reflection book is to do just that reflect upon one page each day However some may feel called to skip around a bit read a few reflections at a time or return to a particular reflection through which God spoke to you Therefore though this book was written with the intent of providing one reflection for each day of the year the best way to use it is any way you feel called and the way that benefits your relationship with God the most The first paragraph for each day offers this author's insights to the words and teachings of Saint Faustina The section of her Diary used for the day's teaching is marked so that the reader can also read her Diary first hand so as to see the primary source that the author of this book took inspiration from for that day's reflection Though the primary text of the Diary is never quoted nor are the reflections of this book exact representations of the Diary they do provide the foundational basis for the spiritual message shared in each reflection The second paragraph for each day offers a short reflection put more as a question to the reader It offers the same insight in a different format so as to enter more deeply into the message of the day Finally each daily reflection ends with a prayer focused upon the message and reflection for that day The reader is encouraged to pray this prayer several times Ideally it is prayed first thing in the morning again during the day and again at night as an examination on how well the daily message was received As you seek to survive the world we live in allow these pages to be a font of Mercy for you from God Allow God's Divine Mercy to penetrate your heart so that you will know the abundance of His love and be more prepared to share that love with others

Second Edition George WYARD, 1864 Spiritual Reflections for Every Day in the Year: with Morning and Evening Prayers Thomas Goyder, 1849 The Fulness of Jesus; Or, Devout Reflections Upon the Relations of Christ to His People George Crowther SMITH, 1866 Ancient Worlds, Modern Reflections Geoffrey Ernest Richard Lloyd, 2006

Publisher description Geoffrey Lloyd engages in a wide ranging exploration of what we can learn from the study of ancient civilizations that is relevant to fundamental problems both intellectual and moral that we still face today These include in philosophy of science the question of the incommensurability of paradigms the debate between realism and relativism or constructivism and between correspondence and coherence conceptions of truth How far is it possible to arrive at an understanding of alien systems of belief Is it possible to talk meaningfully of science and of its various constituent disciplines astronomy geography anatomy and so on in the ancient world Are logic and its laws universal Is there one ontology a single world to which all attempts at understanding must be considered to be directed When we encounter apparently very different views of reality how far can that be put down to a difference in conceptions of what needs explaining or of what counts as an explanation or to different preferred modes of reasoning or styles of inquiry Do the notions of truth and belief represent reliable cross cultural universals In another area what can ancient history teach us about today's social and political problems Are the discourses of human nature and of human rights universally applicable What political institutions do we need to help secure equity and justice within nation states and between them Lloyd sets out to answer all these questions and to argue that the study of the science and culture of ancient Greece and China provided a precious resource in order to advance a wealth of modern debates Nietzsche, Theories of Knowledge, and Critical Theory
