Reflections Of Dead Passion:

Sunday Matters Mark O'Brien, 2012-12-31 Recently Pope Benedict remarked the quality of homilies needs to be improved The Pope made this comment in the context of his extended reflection on the recent Synod in Rome 2010 on the word of God in the mission and life of the Church The homily is an integral part of Christian liturgy It is an honoured way of bringing the word of God to life such that people are helped to see the relevance of the word in their everyday lives The homily is also an art form which needs to be practised and developed with skill It seems to me as a preacher myself that what people are looking for in the homily is an articulate faith filled knowledgeable commentary on the word of God which speaks to their everyday life and experience People want to see the fire desire and conviction in the person who preaches This is a constant challenge Mark O'Brien here presents his reflections on Year C of the lectionary based on the Gospel of Luke This is the companion volume to the earlier ones for Years A and B Mark offers homilists a great service here In two to three pages or several hundred words he gives an erudite and practical reflection on the word of God for the particular Sunday or feast as a good foundation on which any homilist can then build Pope Benedict continues The art of good preaching based on the lectionary is an art that needs to be cultivated In these short but insightful reflections on the readings of the lectionary Mark makes an excellent contribution to developing the art form of good preaching to the benefit of both those who preach and those who hear them Rev Dr Brian Boyle Academic Dean Catholic Theological College

The Living Word™ 2016-2017: Sunday Gospel Reflections and Activities for Teens Compilation, Playing On: Re-staging the Passion after the Death of God Mirella Klomp, 2020-09-25 In Playing On Re staging the Passion after the Death of God Mirella Klomp shows how the Dutch playfully rediscover Christian heritage Engaging theologically with a public Passion play she demonstrates how precisely a production of Jesus last hours carves out a new and unexpected space for God in a post secular culture

Stael's Philosophy of the Passions Tili Boon Cuillé, Karyna Szmurlo, 2013 Sensibility or the capacity to feel played a vital role in philosophical reflection about the natural sciences the social sciences and the arts in eighteenth century France Yet scholars have privileged the Marquis de Sade's vindication of physiological sensibility as the logical conclusion of Enlightenment over Germaine de Staël's exploration of moral sensibility's potential for reform and renewal that paved the way for Romanticism This volume of essays showcases Staël's contribution to the affective revolution in Europe investigating the personal and political circumstances that informed her theory of the passions and the social and aesthetic innovations to which it gave rise Contributors move seamlessly between her political philosophical and fictional works attentive to the relationship between emotion and cognition and aware of the coherence of her thought on an individual national and international scale They first examine the significance Staël attributed to pity happiness melancholy and enthusiasm in The Influence of the Passions as she witnessed revolutionary strife and envisioned the new republic They then explore her development of a cosmopolitan aesthetic in such works as On Literature Corinne or Italy On Germany and The Spirit of

Translation that transcended traditional generic national and linguistic boundaries Finally they turn to her contributions to the visual and musical arts as she deftly negotiated the transition from a Neoclassical to a Romantic aesthetic

Stall's Philosophy of the Passions concludes that rather than founding a republic based on the rights of man Stall's reflection fostered international communities of women artists models and collectors authors performers and spectators enabling them to participate in the re articulation of sociocultural values in the wake of the French Revolution Contributors Tili Boon Cuill Catherine Dubeau Nanette Le Coat Christine Dunn Henderson Karen de Bruin M Ione Crummy Jennifer Law Sullivan Lauren Fortner Ravalico C C Wharram Kari Lokke Susan Tenenbaum Mary D Sheriff Heather Belnap Jensen Fabienne Moore Julia Effertz

Contemporary Jewish Reality in Germany and Its Reflection in Film Claudia Simone Dorchain, Felice Naomi Wonnenberg, 2012-12-06 The notion of self and other and its representation in artwork and literature is an important theme in current cultural sciences as well as in our everyday life in contemporary Western societies Moreover the concept of self and other and its imaginary dichotomy is gaining more and more political impact in a world of resurfacing ideology ridden conflicts The essays deal with Jewish reality in contemporary Germany and its reflection in movies from the special point of view of cultural sciences political sciences and religious studies This anthology presents challengingly new insights into topics rarely covered such as youth culture or humor and finally discusses the images of Jewish life as realities still to be constructed

The Lost Reflection Bruce Jones, 2013-01-01 Brian Denman is an ex CIA agent and mercenary turned private investigator who arrives in New Orleans to probe a centuries old myth It illuminates a modern labyrinth of adventure love and vampires culminating in an epic battle of destiny and revenge

Reflection on the Death of a Porcupine D. H. Lawrence, 2019-02-20 This collection of essays by the author of Lady Chatterley's Lover presents his musings on literature politics and philosophy in a newly restored text Though D H Lawrence was one of the great writers of the twentieth century his works were severely corrupted by the stringent house styling of printers and the intrusive editing of timid publishers A team of scholars at Cambridge University Press has worked for more than thirty years to restore the definitive texts of D H Lawrence in The Cambridge Editions Between 1915 1925 D H Lawrence wrote a series of philosophicalish essays covering topics ranging from politics to nature and from religion to education Varying in tone from lighthearted humor to spiritual meditation they all share the underlying themes of Lawrence's mature work Be thyself As far as possible the editors of the Cambridge Editions series have restored these essays to their original form as Lawrence wrote them A discussion of the history of each essay is provided and several incomplete and unpublished essays are reproduced in an appendix

Moral reflections on select passages of the New Testament, by the author of The gentleman instructed William Darrell, 1736

Passions of the Sign Andreas Gailus, 2006-03-23 Passions of the Sign traces the impact of the French Revolution on Enlightenment thought in Germany as evidenced in the work of three major figures around the turn of the nineteenth century Immanuel Kant Johann Wolfgang von Goethe and Heinrich von Kleist Andreas Gailus examines a largely overlooked strand in the philosophical and literary reception of the French Revolution one which finds in the historical occurrence of revolution the expression of a fundamental mechanism of political conceptual and aesthetic practice With a close reading of a critical essay by Kleist an in depth discussion of Kant s philosophical writing and new readings of the novella form as employed by both Goethe and Kleist Gailus demonstrates how these writers set forth an energetic model of language and subjectivity whose unstable nature reverberates within the very foundations of society Unfolding in the medium of energetic signs human activity is shown to be subject to the counter symbolic force that lies within and beyond it History is subject to contingency and is understood not as a progressive narrative but as an expanse of revolutionary possibilities language is subject to the extra linguistic context of utterance and is conceived primarily not in semantic but in pragmatic terms and the individual is subject to impersonal affect and is figured not as the locus of self determination but as the site of passions that exceed the self and its pleasure principle At once a historical and a conceptual study this volume moves between literature and philosophy and between textual analysis and theoretical speculation engaging with recent discussions on the status of sovereignty the significance of performative language in politics and art and the presence of the impersonal even inhuman within the economy of the self
