Reflective Practice for Professional Development Carol Thompson, 2021-09-27 Reflective Practice for Professional Development provides an accessible introduction to the theory and practice of reflection. In ten concise chapters it explores how reflecting on experiences can be used for professional development and help progress knowledge and skills. Using scenarios, questions and stories, the reader is encouraged to apply the content to their own context, demonstrating the importance of reflection in helping us to make sense as well as make the most of our professional experience. Exploring key themes such as the importance of criticality, models of reflection and connections between thought, language and actions, it considers the ways in which reflection can widen perspectives, generate deeper understanding of professional challenges and enhance creativity. Full of practical tools and approaches for enriching and recording reflections, this insightful book aims to simplify reflective practice for teachers. It is an ideal guide for anyone who needs to build reflection into their practice or their studies.

Learning Journals Jennifer A. Moon, 2006-09-27 Fully updated with important new theory and practical material, this second edition of Learning Journals offers guidance on keeping and using journals and gives step by step advice on integrating journal writing on taught courses in training and professional development and in supporting personal development planning (PDP) activities. Key topics covered include the nature of learning journals and how we learn from them, the broad range of uses of learning journals including portfolios and personal and professional development, the depth and quality of reflection in learning journals, the assessment of learning journals and reflective writing, the use of narrative and story telling techniques in journals. With useful exercises and activities that enhance learning journal work in a structured manner, Learning Journals is invaluable reading for teachers and students in higher education for all professionals, particularly those working in the health services and business and training and for all those who want to learn more about keeping a fulfilling personal journal.
