Reforming Urban Land Policies and Institutions in Developing Countries Catherine Farvacque Vitovic, Patrick McAuslan, Banco Mundial, 1992 Reforming Urban Land Policies and Institutions in Developing Countries Catherine Farvacque, Patrick McAuslan, 1992 This paper attempts to define and assess the various institutional and mechanical elements which constitute a land management system and which have a significant impact on the functioning of land markets The assumption of this report is that the accumulation over time of different institutions and instruments which have reflected different priorities and policies has inhibited the efficient and equitable operation of land markets and that reforms of institutions and policies are now urgently needed Adapt du r sum des auteurs 1991 ,1992 Urban Management Programme, 1997-2001 Urban Management Program, United Nations Human Settlements Programme, 2002 Guiding cities Babar Mumtaz, 2001 Bringing the Law Back In Patrick McAuslan, 2019-07-23 This title was first published in 2003 Bringing together the two fields of land reform and law this volume examines the role the law and lawyers can should and do play in developing countries in the evolution of land policies in land tenure reform and in the reform of land use and urban planning Providing both a theoretical and practical perspective it discusses the role of law in both urban land reform concentrating on reforms in land use and town and country planning law and general national land reform looking at specific case studies and at more general themes It provides a coherent set of ideas and philosophies about land reform through the medium of law which have been developed through reflection and action over a considerable period of time Land Law Reform in Eastern Africa: Traditional or Transformative? Patrick McAuslan, 2013-06-26 Land Law Reform in East Africa reviews development and changes in the statutory land laws of 7 countries in Eastern Africa over the period 1961 2011 The book is divided into two parts Part 1 sets up the conceptual framework for consideration of the reforms and pursues a contrast between transformational and traditional developments where the former aim at change designed to ensure social justice in land laws and the latter aim to continue the overall thrust of colonial approaches to land laws and land administration Part 2 provides an in depth and critical survey of the land law reforms introduced into each country during the era of land law reform which commenced around 1990 The overall effect of the reforms has Patrick McAuslan argues been traditional it was colonial policy to move towards land markets individualisation of land tenure and the demise of customary tenure all of which characterise the post 1990 reforms The culmination of over 50 years of working in this area Land Law Reform in East Africa will be invaluable reading for scholars of land law and of law and development more generally Participatory Urban Governance Edgar A. Pieterse, 2000 Handbook on Best Practices, Security of Tenure, and Access to Land : Implementation of the Habitat Agenda Clarissa Augustinus, United Nations Human Settlements Programme, 2003 Achieving the Sustainable Development Goal Against Poverty in Developing Nations Victor Olutope Ige, Solomon Pelumi Akinbogun, Colin Anthony Jones, 2024-06-18 This book investigates the role of land titling in delivering sustainable means of poverty alleviation in developing countries Despite the huge amount spent on various anti poverty programs annually poverty remains a major problem This persistent challenge necessitates a paradigm shift in which urban poverty could be alleviated in developing countries by leveraging the potential of land titling Titling could provide the urban poor with the opportunity to use their property titles as collateral for loans allowing individuals to invest in businesses upgrade their homes and lift themselves out of poverty As a result job creation and income generation may increase Land titling is a simple inexpensive and effective means of supporting the urban poor particularly those with small and medium sized enterprise SME initiatives Similarly land titling is an antidote to the limited success of property taxation in developing countries as it provides mapped and transaction based records This book will help stakeholders policymakers and policy implementers understand and utilize the capacity of titling as a veritable means of poverty alleviation and SME development in developing nations
