Richard Steven Street, 2013-10-01 Before the film Cesar Chavez Chavez's life was depicted in photographs by his confidant Jon Lewis In the winter of 1966 twenty eight year old ex marine Jon Lewis visited Delano California the center of the California grape strike He thought he might stay awhile then resume studying photography at San Francisco State University He stayed for two years becoming the United Farm Workers Union's semiofficial photographer and a close confidant of farmworker leader Cesar Chavez Surviving on a picket's wage of five dollars a week Lewis photographed twenty four hours a day and created an insider's view of the historic and sometimes violent confrontations mass marches fasts picket lines and boycotts that forced the table grape industry to sign the first contracts with a farm workers union Though some of his images were published contemporaneously most remained unseen Historian and photographer Richard Steven Street rescues Lewis from obscurity allowing us for the first time to see a pivotal moment in civil rights history through the lens of a passionate photographer A masterpiece of social documentary this work is at once the biography of a photographer an exposé of poverty and injustice and a celebration of the human spirit
