Reframing Difference

Carrie Tarr

Reframing Difference:

Reframing Difference Carrie Tarr, 2005-09-17 This is the first major study of two overlapping strands of contemporary French cinema: cinema beur films by young directors of Maghrebi immigrant origin and cinema de banlieue films set in France's disadvantaged outer city estates. Carrie Tarr's insightful account draws on a wide range of films from directors such as Mehdi Charef, Mathieu Kassowitz, and Djamel Bensalah. Foregrounding such issues as the quest for identity, the negotiation of space, and the recourse to memory and history, she argues that these films challenge and reframe the symbolic spaces of French culture, addressing issues of ethnicity and difference which are central to today's debates about what it means to be French.

Bridging Differences:

Understanding Cultural Interaction in Our Globalized World Newtona (Tina) Johnson, Shawn Simpson, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2016. Cultural interaction in our worlds today is essential to building 21st century bridges between communities. The experiences and lessons learned from the authors of the articles herein are shared with empathy and humility across many disciplines. The creation and re-creation of individual identities and group identities due to migrations throughout history is an ongoing story. Never does one cultural profile remain constant. On the contrary, as boundaries change, so do people and therefore cultures. Interculturalism is the one valid approach to understanding these changes but should be used with great sensitivity. And sensitivity is the overriding emotion emanating from the different studies in this volume: the search for one's identity when the latter has been lost or has become difficult to recognize; the attempts to erase identities so as to conform to national unity; the will to create new identities to fit in with new environments; the need to re-evaluate oneself so as to remain true to oneself. These endeavors are subtly described in this vibrant compendium of intercultural monographies.

ReFocus: The Films of Rachid Bouchareb Michael Gott, 2020-09-21 ReFocus: The Films of Rachid Bouchareb is the first book-length study of the internationally recognized director's films. Bouchareb was one of France's first filmmakers of North African descent, and his career as a director and producer now spans over 35 years. Remarkably varied in their themes, formal elements, and narrative settings, Bouchareb's work has engaged with and reflected on a variety of crucial social, political, and historical issues, from the role of colonial troops in the French army during the Second World War to terrorism in contemporary Europe. This volume examines Bouchareb's films from an interdisciplinary perspective, exploring key influences on his output and considering new theoretical approaches to his filmmaking.
