Less Translated Languages Albert Branchadell, Lovell Margaret West, 2005 This is the first collection of articles devoted entirely to less translated languages a term that brings together well known widely used languages such as Arabic or Chinese and long neglected minority languages with power as the key word at play It starts with some views on English the dominant language in Translation as elsewhere considers the role of translation for minority languages both a source of inequality and a means to overcome it takes a look at translation from less translated major languages and cultures and ends up with a closer look at translation into Catalan a paradigmatic case of less translated language in a final section that includes a vindication of six prominent Catalan translators Combining sound theoretical insight and accurate analysis of relevant case studies the contributors to this collection make a convincing case for a more thorough examination of less translated languages within the field of Translation Studies
